

UNORGANIZED QUARANTINE STATIONS.

31. At every port at which there is no regular quarantine station the Collector of Customs at each port shall be the quarantine officer for the purposes of these regulations; and every such port shall be designated an Unorganized Quarantine Station.

32. Every vessel arriving at an unorganized station from an infected port, or on board of which any death from infectious disease or outbreak of infectious disease has occurred during the voyage, shall remain outside until it receives permission to enter from the quarantine officer.

33. All the regulations applicable to regularly organized quarantine stations shall also apply to every unorganized quarantine station in so far as circumstances will admit, and particularly the provisions relating to inspection, anchoring or mooring, disinfecting, customs clearance, putting back to sea before breaking bulk, questions to ship's surgeon or officers, and penalties.

34. In the event of a vessel arriving at an unorganized station with quarantinable sickness on board, the master shall pay a fee of $4 for each medical inspection ordered by the quarantine officer and such fee or fees must be paid before customs clearance is granted.

(a.) If no sickness is found on board a vessel arriving at an unorganized quarantine station and ordered to be inspected by the quarantine officer, the cost of such inspection shall not be a charge against the vessel, but will be defrayed by the Government.

STEAM TUGS.

35. Any steam tug or other vessel which shall have towed or otherwise communicated with any vessel of the class of vessels subject to quarantine or quarantine inspection shall thereby be held to the same regulations and requirements as apply to the vessel communicated with;

(a.) If the communication between the vessel and the steam tug is confined to attachment of a rope, afterwards loosed, the quarantine officer may decide to release such tug from quarantine detention.

RAGS.

36. Rags coming from a port or country in which infectious disease prevails, shall be prohibited, and the name of any port or country so infected shall, from time to time, be published in the Canada Gazette:

(a.) Rags arriving from prohibited ports at a quarantine station shall be liable to be burnt or otherwise treated on the order of the Minister of Agriculture based on a report of the quarantine officer,
