
Excalibur

Vol. 13 No 23

York University Community Newspaper

22 March 1979

Gary Hershorn

The real news this week was... Spring. At last. What better way to mark its coming than some classical, Canadian cultural nationalism: "...in the springtime it roared with running waters and surged with new life and our artists were advised to go to Europe and paint smelly canals." — A.Y. Jackson