

would prove any equivalent for the loss of their lands, and it is therefore of opinion that it would be better to discourage the idea, at any rate for the present.

Your obedient servant,

Hayter Reed

Deputy Superintendent General of Indian Affairs.