

Father Chalandard organized the sanctuary choir, and, after becoming leader, he placed St. Basil's Choir on such a firm and solid basis that in after years it became one of the best in Ontario. Sunday after Sunday for twenty years or more his fine bass voice led the chant in the sanctuary and the singing in the choir. With untiring zeal he would go from sanctuary to choir and back several times during the services.