

Article I. There shall be, reckoning from this date, peace and friendship between His Majesty the King of France and Navarre, on the one part, and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary and Bohemia, and his Allies, on the other part, their heirs and successors, their respective states and subjects in perpetuity.

The high contracting parties shall apply all their cares to maintain, not only between themselves, but also as far as depends on them between all the States of Europe, the good agreement and understanding so necessary to its repose.

Art II. The Kingdom of France preserves the integrity of its limits, such as they existed at the period of the 1st of Jan. 1792. It shall receive besides an augmentation of territory comprised within the line of demarkation fixed by the following article:—

Art III. On the side of Belgium, Germany, and Italy, the ancient frontier, such as it existed on the 1st January, 1792, shall be re-established, the same commencing from the North Sea, between Dunkirk and Nieuport, even unto the Mediterranean between Cagnes and Nice, with the following rectifications:—

1. In the Department of Jemappes, the Cantons of Dour, Merbes le-Chateau, Beaumont and Chiney, shall remain to France: the line of demarkation, where it touches the Canton of Dour, shall pass between that Canton and those of Boussu and Paturage, as well as, farther on, between that of Morbes-le-Chateau, and those of Binch and Thuin.

2. In the department of the Sambre and Meuse, the cantons of Valcourt, Florennes, Beauraing, and Gedume, shall belong to France; the demarkation, upon reaching this department, shall follow the line which separates the forementioned cantons, from the department of Jemappes, and from the rest of that of the Sambre and Meuse.

3. In the department of the Moselle, the new demarkation where it differs from the old, shall be formed by a line to be drawn from Perle as far as Fremersdorf, or by that which separates the canton of Tholey from the rest of the department of the Moselle.

4. In the department of the Sarre, the cantons of Saarbruck and Arnwal, shall remain to France, as well as that part of the canton of Lebach, which is situated to the south of a line to be drawn along the confines of the villages of Herchenbach, Uebchlosen, Hillsbach and Hall (leaving these different places, without the French frontier) to the point where taken from Querselle (which belongs to France) the line which separates the cantons of Arnwal and Ottweiler, reaches that which separates those of Arnwal and Lebach; the frontier on this side shall be formed by the line above marked out, and then by that which separates the canton of Arnwal from that of Bliescastel.

5. The fortress of Landau having, prior to the year 1792, formed an insulated point in Germany, France retains beyond her frontiers a part of the departments of Mont Tonnere and the Lower Rhine, in order to join the fortress of Landau and its district to the rest of the kingdom. The new demarkation proceeding from the point where, at Obersteinbach, (which remains without the French frontier) the frontier enters the department of the Moselle, and that of Mont Tonnere, joins the department of the Lower Rhine, shall follow the line which separates the cantons of Weissenburgh and Bergzabern (on the side of France) from the canton of Firmasens, Dahn, and Anweiler (on the side of Germany) to the point where these limits, near the village of Wonnertsheim, touch the ancient district of the fortress of Landau. Of this district, which remains as it was in 1792, the new frontier shall follow the arm of the river Queich, which, in leaving this district near Queichheim, (which rests with France) passes near the villages of Merlenheim, Knittelsheim, and Belheim (also remaining French) to the Rhine, which thence continues the boundary between France and Germany. As to the Rhine, the Thalveg, or course of the river, shall form the boundary; the changes, however, which may occur in the course of the river, shall have no effect on the property of the isles which are found there. The possession of these isles shall be replaced under the same form as at the period of the treaty of Luneville.

6. In the Department of the Doubs, the frontiers shall be drawn so as to commence above La Ranconniere, near the Loell, and follow the crest of the Jura be-
