

The Best Books for the Sabbath School

BOOKS for present-day needs, up to the standard of present day requirements—these are what we supply. The day of the colorless, conventional story book is past. The Sabbath School of to-day wants books that are wholesome, helpful, stimulating—books that present the realities of life in such a way as to uplift and inspire all readers.

We have followed the needs of the Sabbath School from year to year, and can help you to make the best possible selection. We carry in stock books which have the approval of Presbyterian Sabbath School workers; we supply all books approved by the General Assembly Committee.

Order your books from us and get the advantage of wholesale prices—no matter what books you require, we can fill your complete order, as we handle the publications of all the British, American, and Canadian publishing houses.

Write to us about your requirements. Prices, suggestions, or information of any kind promptly given.
