The butter market has been ster The butter market has been steady all week, with a somewhat even tendency. The high prices raid at country points last Saturday seract to take the edge off the market, and the amount of butter this week, has been rather small. However, dealers have faith in butter and country markets this week-end are steady and unchanged from a week ago. There is a fair quantity being shipped but the bulk of the receipts is going into store for account of local houses.
