Standard and Useful Books for the Library.

GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE, complete, from its commencement in 1731 to December 1817, with Index up to 1786, many hundred portraits and other engravings of old English and parochial and national antiquities, bound in 97 vols, half calf, 37.50. 1

A most valuable book of reference for all subjects appertaining to local history, historical events, literature, biography, family history, American affairs; full list of births, marriages and deaths for upwards of eighty years. Mr. Allibone, in writing of CAVE, the founder, well says, "It should be in the library of every student of English literature and political history." And we may add that Cave was perhaps the most enterprising and fearless newspaper originator of his time. He it was who broke through the cast iron rule and defied the Commons in reporting Parliamentary news, and in the number for June, 1738, we have Gulliver's account of the famous empire of Great Lilliput, meaning by this the English Parliament. The Commons after this not interfering with his publication of the so called Lilliput debates. DR. JOHNSON was part editor, and in the commencement of his literary career, drew his chief means of support from his contributions to the "Gentleman's Magazine." In 1778 JOHN NICHOLS obtained a share in the magazine, and rendered it more valuable than at any period of its former history. EDMUND BURKE entitled it one of the most chaste and instructive miscellanies of the age—an opinion corroborated by DR. WATSON and EDWARD GIBBON, the latter of whom urged Nichols to make a selection for future reference from its overflowing pages. RICHARD GOUGH was for many years a constant contributor.

EVANGELICAL MAGAZINE COMPLETE from its commencement in 1793, down to 1869, 77 vols, 8vo, half calf, a scarce and valuable set of books, 30.00, 1793-1869. 2

Another lot from 1808, down to 1836, numerous portraits, 29 vols, A GOOD SOUND LOT, half calf, 6.75. 3

IS WITHOUT QUESTION the MOST VALUABLE PUBLICATION pertaining to Evangelical Christianity and Nonconformist Church History and Biography ever published. There are numerous dissenting seminaries of learning, in which this publication should most assuredly be found, to be loved, consulted and preserved for future generations. It was commenced at a time when to be a dissenter was to be almost a criminal, and abounds with the most reliable information relating to church history, biography, the history, constitution, results, and prospects of Christianity in all parts of the world for nearly one hundred years, and is not obtainable from any other source. THE SET CONTAINS some SIX OR EIGHT HUNDRED ENGRAVED PORTRAITS of good old NONCONFORMIST MINISTERS and others, whose names are household words in England, and whose MEMORY AND LABORS WILL BE HELD IN EVERLASTING REMEMBRANCE. The portraits alone should be worth more than the money.
