

— Josiah P. Lamb, corporal in the twenty-first regiment of Infantry, of the United States of America (prisoner of war), aged twenty-two years, died february the twelfth and was buried february the fourteenth in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

By me, Salter-Jehosaphat Mountain, officiating minister at Quebec.

— Ezekiel Hazard, private soldier in the United States first Regiment of Light Artillery, a native of Rhode Island, prisoner of war, aged twenty-five years, died february the twenty fifth, and was buried february the twenty sixth, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

By me Jehosaphat Mountain, officiating minister at Quebec.

— Thomas Libby, a volunteer in the United States twenty third Regiment of Infantry, a native of the State of Massachusetts, prisoner of war, aged twenty years, died february the twenty fifth, and was buried february the twenty-sixth in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

By me, Salter Jehosaphat Mountain, officiating minister at Quebec.

— Abraham Bush, private soldier in the United States first Regiment of Artillery, a native of the state of Maryland, prisoner of war, aged forty eight years, died march the twenty-second, and was buried march the twenty-third, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

By me, Salter Jehosaphat Mountain, officiating minister at Quebec.

— Orin Hall, private soldier in the United States thirteenth Regiment of Foot, a native of New-York, prisoner of war, aged thirty-six years, died march the twenty-eight, and was buried march the thirtieth in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

By me George Jehosaphat Mountain, evening lecturer at Quebec.

— John Berlin, private soldier in the first United States Regiment of Artillery, from the state of Vermont, a prisoner of war, aged about thirty-eight years, died april the twentieth, and was buried april the twenty first, in the year of Our Lord one thousand and eight hundred and fourteenth.

By me Salter Jehosaphat Mountain, officiating minister at Quebec.

— Samuel Bascorn, private soldier in the ninth regiment of Infantry of the United States of America (prisoner of war) aged twenty-one years, died april the twentieth and was buried april the twenty-second in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

By me Georges Jehosaphat Mountain, evening lecturer at Quebec.

— John Smith, private soldier in the United States thirty third Regiment of Foot, a native of Massachusetts, prisoner of war, aged fifty-three years