GETS DAMAGES FOR HURT FROM HATPIN

Important Ruling by London County Court Judge on Long Hatpins.

Liability for injury caused by hatpins was established against their wearers as a principle of law in the Wandsworth County Court on Monday by Judge Harrington. A hatpin without a guard was described as a dangerous implement.
Miss Olive Smith, a typist, of East Sheen, was the party sued, the plaintiff being Mrs. Charlotte Osborne, of Barnes, who stated that she was entering an omnibus at Hammersmith when Miss Smith pushed by her, and her hatpin entered her cheek below the left eye. Miss Smith refused to give her name and address, and Mrs Osborne's son followed her home, the next day when Mrs. Osborne called the door was slammed in her face. As a result of the accident she was under the doctor's care for a fortnight.
Answering the judge, Mr. Osborne said that the pin projected 2 1/2 in. beyond the hat. Miss Smith was wearing a woollen hat.
Miss Smith denied that she was wearing a woollen hat, stating that she was coming from the Post Office, and they would not let them wear "lammies" there. She was pushed from behind, by some people and she had to run to get into her hat. She said that her hatpin nearly went into her eye. She denied that the pin was sticking out beyond the hat.
The judge: You agree that a hatpin is dangerous unless it is protected—Certainly.
And you are wearing an unprotected hat pin now?—Yes.
Why don't you get a guard for it?—I have had dozens, but they come off.
His Honor said that it was not necessary to prove any other negligence than the wearing of a hatpin without a guard, and awarded Mrs. Osborne £3.

COMB SAGE TEA IN LIFELESS GRAY HAIR

Look Young! Common Garden Sage and Sulphur Darkens so Naturally Nobody Can Tell.
Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" you will get a large bottle of this old time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair, and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.
A well known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By mashing the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.
