Nerves and Piano Tuning.

It was testified in a London police court recently that lunatic asylums contain a larger percentage of piano tuners than of representatives of any other trade. Any one who has been forced to listen to a piano being tuned can understand the nerve racking nature of such a business.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

The uniform success of this remedy has made it the most popular preparation in use for bowel complaints. It is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoea in children and is undoubtedly the means of saving the lives of a great many children each year. For sale by All Druggists.

The Goddess Pele.

Pele, the dreadful goddess of volcanic fires, first made her abode among the Hawaiian Islands in company with many furious brothers and sisters ages ago. Scholars suppose that Pele and the wind gods were introduced into the mythology of Hawaii at the time of the second migration of Polynesians.

HOW'S THIS?

Ancient Carpenters.

The carpenters of the middle ages must have been very expert, for not otherwise could they have erected the enormous timber works necessary in the building of the great cathedrals of that day, but they have left no records of the manner in which the task was performed.

All Druggists will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

An Old Clock.

The clock placed in the hall of the Holborn (England) borough council is at least 250 years old and has been in the possession of the local authorities for that period. It still keeps good time.

IT'S WHAT IT LEADS TO

That makes Catarrh such a dreaded disease. If you have Catarrh taint, dropping in the throat, if you hawk and spit and have a stuffed up feeling in your nostrils you should use Chamberlain's Catarrh Remedy at once and get cured. Thousands have been saved from Consumption and completely cured by Catarrh Remedy, so there is no reason why you shouldn't stamp out your Catarrh also. Catarrh Remedy will really cure you and prevent the disease from returning. It's very pleasant, just balsamic medicated vapor, no nauseous drugs. Absolute cure guaranteed to users of Catarrh Remedy; it can't fail, try it. Complete outfit $1.00; sample size 25c.

Public Bakeries.

OUT OF WORK.

Tragedy of Unemployment to the Man Who is Aging.

The tragedy of unemployment deepens in the case of those men who are visibly aging, passing prematurely into that condition when society has neither use nor regard for their services. The development of the modern city life in its feverish thirst for gain sucks up the activities of the young. Work can always be found for the children. But the man of forty has already become suspect. At fifty there is evidently stretching before him the bleak old age of the unwanted poor. The despairing clutch of the aging at any degrading occupation which before they would have scorned is one of the commonest and pitifullest sights of modern life. I think of those whom I have known, those who dye their hair to keep the appearance of youth, the applicants for positions, their efforts toward respectability, the ink lined coat, the shabbiness concealed, the attempt, always so grotesque and ineffective, to strike the right note between a dignity that will command respect and an eagerness that will become a mere mendicant pleading for aid.

I remember one with a record of over thirty years' consistent service, exhibiting hands twisted and gnarled with disease, who shuffles daily through his work with the help of kindly comrades, fearing each day to be detected. Though the work itself is an agony, the one panic fear is not that he shall be compelled but that he shall be forbidden to continue. I think of others tucked away out of sight in the recesses of tenement dwellings, flung aside from the active machinery of the world, who "cannot quite bring themselves" to join the unemployed processions or solicit a promiscuous charity of the crowd, who cling to the desperate hope that one day the cloud will lighten, the miracle happen that some one will be found desiring their services. This is in no austere and frugal community, with difficulty supporting its children, but amid wealth pouring into its borders beyond the dreams of avarice and such luxury and vain display as can only be paralleled in the later days of Rome.

Guarding the Mouth.

Remember the disgust which over spreads the faces in a railroad car when a woman was seen to give her poodle a drink from the public drinking glass. No one else touched it during that trip, but it is more dangerous and not less disgusting to drink after human beings than a dog. Fortunately most disease germs die easily, and it is chiefly by the quite direct means of contact just suggested that the contagious diseases pass from one to another. If we put nothing into the mouth except what belongs there, we might ride in a car with a diphtheria patient and run no chance of catching the disease. Disease germs do not fly about seeking whom they may devour. The matter of protection is largely in our own hands.—Good Housekeeping.

Hopeless Case.

The forgetful man was stepping jauntily along with a smile on his cheerful face when he was accosted by a friend.
"Look here," said the man. "Why in the world are you carrying two umbrellas?"
"Why, let me think," said the forgetful man. "Oh, yes, I know how it happened. My wife wanted me to get her umbrella that's been mended, and she thought I'd better bring along mine to remind me, it being a pleasant day, and then I thought I'd better bring two in case I stepped in anywhere and happened to forget one of them."

Trapped in Armor.

Trying on ancient armor is not always an agreeable experiment. Judging from the experience of a French artist. He had bought a quaint old helmet and put it on his own head to judge the effect. Unfortunately he touched a spring, the visor shot down suddenly, and, being alone in the studio, he could not free himself from the mediaeval head covering without help. At last he ran into the street, where his appearance created considerable amusement till a charitable passerby managed to set him free.—Hour Glass.

An Odd Globe.

A great globe ornamented with the map of the earth carved in stone decorates the estate of an eccentric Englishman at Swanage. It stands overlooking the sea and is visible for quite a distance. One may walk about it and study it in detail. The plain surfaces, such as the oceans, lakes and deserts, are decorated with Scriptural texts, which are supposed to apply especially to the locality they occupy.

A Short Story.

Chapter I.—"I think you are just the bestest, goodest husband in all the world!"

Chapter II.—"I wonder how much she wants?"

Chapter III.—"And he gave it to me without fussing a bit. I wonder what he has been up to?"

The Business Man.

"Don't you think he rather likes me?"

"Oh, well enough to consent to your marriage to his daughter, but I don't think you'd better try to borrow any money from him."

Limit For a Friend in Need.

Goodies.

In the thirteenth century the sweetmeats for the tables of royalty and nobility were prepared by the apothecaries, who called their confections "goodies."

THE GREATEST FAMILY REMEDY

And one well known in most Canadian homes is Nerviline, a perfect panacea for all internal and external pain. Mrs. M. E. Cartwright, of Morris, says:—I couldn't think of being without Nerviline. When I get toothache Nerviline stops it. If I get a sick headache, have a trouble with my stomach or bowels I can rely on Nerviline to cure me promptly. To break up a cold or rub on for rheumatism or neuralgia Nerviline has no equal. It's priceless in any family. Nerviline is king over all pain and costs 25c.

Snow Pudding.

Any one who is in the habit of making snow pudding will find preserved pineapple a great addition to it. When the snow is ready pour it into the mold until you have a good foundation, add your pineapple and then the rest of the snow. When it is cold serve, as usual, with soft custard.

HURRIED AND WORRIED ALL DAY.

And the worst of it is you are a little run down and have mighty little chance to catch up. Everything seems like a grindstone wearing down your nerves. You are irritable and get less sleep than is absolutely necessary. Better stop before things get worse. Your best plan is to use Ferrozene for a while and give your nerves and brain a chance to pick up. Ferrozene is the finest tonic a busy man can take. It makes new blood, nourishes the body, strengthens the nerves, improves the appetite and re-habituates the whole system. Try Ferrozene. Price 50c.
