

What Do You Do With Your Margins?

You can not read a man so well during his busy hours as by what he does after supper, or from the closing hour of business to bedtime. You can not gauge his character so well by the money he spends for necessities or the living of his family, as by the little overplus of money which is left after the necessary expenses are paid. What does he do with his spare money, that margin left over from business and from living expenses? What he does with the margin will throw a wonderful light upon his character.

The largest part of every active life must be devoted to getting a living, attending to one's affairs and this is done by most people in a routine sort of way. You can not tell much about the real man during these hours, because he has a system, his regular daily routine, and he does very much the same thing every day. But the moment he is free, he is quite a different man. Then his real propensities come out. People are not natural until they are free from restraint.

Watch the boy and the girl when they are free from their regular duties, and see how they spend their evenings, what society they keep, what companionships they form, what they do. This will be a pretty good test of their character.—[From "Success Magazine"]

Must Advertise

Some instances have reached the notice of the Review lately, where people to whose premises animals have strayed have quite overlooked the importance of advertising the fact. A man near Clarisholm lost a valuable team of horses and did considerable advertising. After two months the horses were found on a farm near Nanton. The man who harbored the animals never thought it was a duty to advertise the fact. The law provides a stiff penalty for such negligence, and it looks as if a few stiff applications of the estrayed animals act might have a beneficial effect.—Clarisholm Review.

Held a Ward Conference

The Claresholm ward conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints was held last Sunday, Jan. 30th, in the L. D. S. Church at Woodhouse. There was in attendance from the head offices of the stake, Pres. E. J. Wood with his Counselors Duce and Williams, Stak Superintendent of relief society, Sister Duce, Sister of the Mutual Improvement Association, Bro. David Wilcox of the Young Men's Association with a number of other visiting Brothers and Sisters.

Services commenced at 2 p. m. The ward choir sang "How Firm A Foundation," prayer was offered by Elder G. H. Grow. The choir sang "Hark! listen to the Trumpeters." Reports from the various ward organizations were given by their respective presidents. They were reported in good working condition. Sister Duce was the first speaker and was very glad to meet with the saints in their new meeting house and gave some very timely instructions. Bore strong testimony to the truth of the gospel of Christ. The Sister gave some good advice to the Young Ladies Association.

Elder Walter Caldwell, recently returned from a mission, spoke at some length on the Mission of Christ while on earth and bore a testimony of the restoration of the gospel through the Prophet Joseph Smith. The choir sang "Though Deepening Trails Through Your way." The names of the General Authorities of the church were placed before the people and were sustained. The speaking was interspersed with solos from Brother Jordan, Sister Harkins and Miss Hazel Rice. The choir sang "School Thy Feeling, O My Brother." Benediction was pronounced by Elder D. H. Barbanks.

Services met again at 7.30 with the Mutual Improvement Association. The choir was in attendance and rendered very nice selections. The principal speakers were Elder D. H. Grow, Elder John Heninger and Pres. E. J. Wood. A high tribute was paid by the speakers to the saints on their beautiful meeting house and especially on the manner in which the choir rendered their part under the leadership of Mr. J. M. Workman.

President Wood gave a financial report of the Stake and also said that every member of the church could know where all the money was expended, which was received from the tithing. That he knew of no salaried minister in the church outside of those whose time was entirely taken up with clerical work. He related some mission experiences while in the Samoan Islands and bore a testimony that Christ lived. After a selection by the choir the conference was adjourned.—Clarisholm Review.
