

DON'T DO THIS!

LEONARD EAR OIL

RELIEVES DEAFNESS AND STOPS HEAD NOISES. Simply Rub it Back of the Ears and Insert in Nostrils. Proof of success will be given by the druggist.

MADE IN CANADA

ARTHUR SALES CO., Sales Agents, Toronto & U. S. Branches, 100 St. John St., N. Y. City

For sale Frederickton by Hunt & McDonald, Wiley's Drug Store, A. J. Ryan, Dibley's Drug Store and Alonzo Staples.

A. O. LEONARD, INC.
70 5th Avenue, New York.

Better Than Pills For Liver Ills.

You can't feel so good but what NATURAL REMEDY will make you feel better.

Get a Box.

Staples' Pharmacy and A. W. Coombes

N. S. MEMBER HAS MANY INQUIRIES

Mr. Sinclair Anxious About the Work Done at Courtenay Last Year

[Canadian Press by Leased Wire.]

Ottawa, March 8.—The amount of money expended by the Government in stabilizing the Victory Bond market during 1920 is being asked in the House by John H. Sinclair, Antigonish and Guysboro.

Mr. Sinclair has another question in which he asks the Government if the suggestion that the Government employ a dredging the Courtenay Bay, St. John, N. B.

He also wants to know full particulars regarding the dredge and the amount expended in the maintenance of the vessel.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

Delving into the Government's ship-building activities, Mr. Sinclair asks how much money was expended on construction up to December 31, 1920, the total expenditure for all purposes in connection with the fleet and the gross and net receipts.

PUBLICATION OF KAISER'S MEMOIRS

The G. W. V. A. Protest Circulation in Canada or British Dominions

[Canadian Press by Leased Wire.]

Ottawa, March 8.—As a result of the publication in a British paper to the effect that a British paper was planning to publish the ex-Kaiser's memoirs, the Ottawa branch of the G. W. V. A. at a meeting here last night strongly protested against such a publication.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

In a resolution passed, it was suggested that a petition be forwarded to His Majesty King George V. urging him to use his great influence in preventing such publication, as it would be an outrage against British sentiment, that the most responsible for the Great World cataclysm should now be permitted to materially benefit in the way of pecuniary gain by the publication of his memoirs. The resolution also urged an appeal to the government to make it illegal for any person in Canada to be in possession of a copy of such memoirs, or of any newspaper or magazine, whether British, American or Canadian, containing such memoirs.

Summary of Night Despatches

Washington, March 8.—The withdrawal of the United States forces from the Rhine, is not under consideration, Secretary Weeks, of the War Department, announced yesterday after a first meeting of the Harding cabinet.

Abandoned Schooner.
St. Pierre, Miqu., March 8.—The crew of nine of the Nova Scotia schooner Persephone arrived here yesterday after abandoning the ship, which stranded on Plate Point at the southeastern extremity of Little Miquelon Island last Sunday.

More Men Laid Off.
Madison, Me., March 8.—Sixty men in the sulphite department of the Great Northern Paper Co. have been laid off indefinitely after a large number were laid off last week.

Cost of Railway Operation.
Ottawa, March 8.—The high cost of railway operation will ruin the immediate future, Hon. Dr. J. D. McArthur, Minister of Railways, told the House last night. The McArthur award, he said, had done Canadian railways a great deal of harm.

Spanish Premier Killed.
London, March 8.—The Spanish Premier, Eduardo Dato, has been assassinated by a revolver shot as he left Congress, according to a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. from Madrid. The news was confirmed from Madrid last night.

Petrograd Workmen Revolt.
London, March 8.—The Petrograd workmen are revolting against the mobilization and have attacked the soviet troops, says a Helsingfors despatch to the London Times. It adds that the revolutionary leader, Kosslovski, is completely victorious and is preparing to advance on Petrograd.

The Railway Estimates.
Ottawa, March 8.—Railway estimates to be submitted in the House will be $175,000,000, of which some $57,000,000 will be required for the Grand Trunk.

Reduce Codfish Prices.
St. John, Nfld., March 8.—Exporters here agreed yesterday to reduce prices $40 a ton on codfish for sale in Brazil.

Anglo-Canadian Banking.
London, March 8.—Anglo-Canadian banking, commercial and professional interests, met here yesterday and resolved to form a Canadian Chamber of Commerce in London.

Sumner Hun Ambassadors.
Berlin, March 8.—It is semi-officially announced that the German Ambassadors at London, Paris and Brussels have been summoned to Berlin.

To Put End to Strikes.
Quebec, March 8.—The Gallipoli bill, intended to put an end to lock-outs and strikes in municipal services in the province of Quebec, was put through the legislature last night.

Reign of Lawlessness.
Chicago, March 8.—A reign of lawlessness declared to be the outcome of a political feud which has terrorized one of the most densely populated cities in the world for weeks, yesterday culminated with the assassination of two of the city's leading politicians, both of whom were shot dead. Powers defeated D'Andrea for alderman last month.

25,000 in Occupation.
Paris, March 8.—Less than 25,000 troops were used in carrying out the occupation of additional German territory under the decision reached at London Monday, effective yesterday, it was said at the French Foreign Office.

Situation at Kronstadt.
London, March 8.—Wireless message from Moscow yesterday says food and fuel situation in Kronstadt is hopeless and that dissolution among the insurgents is increasing hourly. It adds that the leaders of the rebels are taking the severest measures to prevent the sailors deserting to the soviet army from Kronstadt.

CHAPTER VII.
Fabian Laveque elaborated the details of the catastrophe with volubility.

"He's not funny that she breaks through," he said. "I've seen dem break through two, three times in dem day, but nevalde dat she get down! Wen dese dam-folk can't tink wit' dees head—sacre Dieu! get is so easy, to esook dat cheval—she make mo cry wit' de eye!"

"I suppose it was a good deal my fault," commented Mr. Bayley, doubtfully shaking his head, after Laveque had left the office. "I ought to have been surer about the ice."

"Eight inches is a little light, with so much snow atop," remarked the scaler carelessly.

By virtue of that same careless remark, however, Rayway was so confirmed in his belief as to his own capability that he quite overlooked Fabian's just contention—that the mere thickness of the ice was in reality no excuse for the loss of the horses.

Pat, possessed by some Siberian notion that now all was fast, let go of the bit. Jenny's head at once went under, and the end of the logging chain slid over the ice and fell plump in the hole.

The instant Henry's head passed the end of the chain through the knot, Pat, possessed by some Siberian notion that now all was fast, let go of the bit. Jenny's head at once went under, and the end of the logging chain slid over the ice and fell plump in the hole.

The instant Henry's head passed the end of the chain through the knot, Pat, possessed by some Siberian notion that now all was fast, let go of the bit. Jenny's head at once went under, and the end of the logging chain slid over the ice and fell plump in the hole.

The instant Henry's head passed the end of the chain through the knot, Pat, possessed by some Siberian notion that now all was fast, let go of the bit. Jenny's head at once went under, and the end of the logging chain slid over the ice and fell plump in the hole.

The instant Henry's head passed the end of the chain through the knot, Pat, possessed by some Siberian notion that now all was fast, let go of the bit. Jenny's head at once went under, and the end of the logging chain slid over the ice and fell plump in the hole.

The instant Henry's head passed the end of the chain through the knot, Pat, possessed by some Siberian notion that now all was fast, let go of the bit. Jenny's head at once went under, and the end of the logging chain slid over the ice and fell plump in the hole.

The instant Henry's head passed the end of the chain through the knot, Pat, possessed by some Siberian notion that now all was fast, let go of the bit. Jenny's head at once went under, and the end of the logging chain slid over the ice and fell plump in the hole.

An Important Sale
OF
All Wool Serge
AT
$2.98 Per Yard

We have just purchased a line of All Wool Serge, heavy quality, suitable for Suits, Coats or Dresses. They are 44 in. wide and come in shades of Navy, Grey, Brown, Green, Burgundy and Black. They are wonderful values at $2.98.

Another line in Navy and Black only, an extra fine Serge, 50 in. wide. This quality would sell last spring at $8.00 a yard. Our special price to clear, $4.28 per yard.

WM. R. FRASER
430 QUEEN STREET

Classified Ads.

RATE—25 cents per insertion of 20 words; each additional word 1 cent per insertion. Cash with order.

WANTED.

APPLICANTS.—Learn barber trade. Few weeks required. Tools free. Percentage while learning. Address: J. J. Barber College, St. Lawrence Blvd., Montreal, M. B. C.

WANTED.—Salesman. A self-respecting man whose ambition is beyond his present occupation might find more congenial employment with us and at the same time double his income. We require a man of clean character, sound in mind and body, of strong personality, who would appreciate a life's position with a fast growing concern, where industry would be rewarded far above average earnings. Married man preferred. Apply Mr. McKenzie, 2nd floor, 35 York street—367.

WANTED.—A girl for general housework in small family. Good wages. Apply Mrs. M. Ryan, Woodstock Road, phone 201-11-3733.

WANTED.—A girl for general housework. Must be good plain cook. Apply Mrs. Chas. K. Palmer, 167 Charlotte street—382.

WANTED.—Two or three men boarders. Apply 248 Queen street—382.

WANTED.—Young lady desires position as stenographer, eight months' experience, can supply best of references. Apply "J. E. M.", care of Gleaner—386.

WANTED.—Two dining room girls, one chambermaid. Apply Windsor Hotel—390.

WANTED.—Cook, vest and trousers makers. Stanger & Harrison—400.

WANTED.—Light trucking. Ogilvy's will have prompt attention. Prices reasonable. Partington, Victoria street, Phone 129-31-402.

WANTED.—At once, smart dining room girl. Apply at Imperial Lunch Rooms—402.

WANTED.—At once, in unrepresented territory, a number of good agents to handle our line of High Grade Fertilizers in carload lots. Merchants or others. Wholesale prices and good terms to buyers. Apply: H. J. Fertilizer Co., Ltd., Branch of Swift's, Write S. J. Wilson, St. Stephen, N. B., Box 453-351d.

WANTED.—Female cook and kitchen girl. Apply: Supply Grand Hotel 309 Queen street—411.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—Cloth! Cloth! Cloth! Do you women folks need material in good quality for their dresses and suits? We have thousands of yards of cloth that will be sold as low as $2.75 per yard, a regular price, in goods 54 to 66 inches wide. This is an excellent opportunity to get materials in better quality than usually found in women's fabrics, and also take care of the children's needs. Call at our store, address 250 Queen street. English & Scotch Woolen Co.—250.

FOR SALE.—The Dunn property situated at Victoria Mill, including: Three tenement houses, homestead and seven building lots. For full particulars apply Stephen Dunn on the premises—39d.

FOR SALE.—A high class Walker American cornet, satin silver finish with gold bell and mountings and pearl buttons. Extra good cornet at reasonable price. Frank C. Jewett—134.

FOR SALE.—Perfection cook stove, burners, in first class condition. Can be seen at 182 Argyle street—410.

FOR SALE.—Eggs for hatching. Guinea fowls, day old, of Barred Rocks, price $2 per setting. Also, cockerels, same strain, price $1 each. Marvin L. Dunphy, The Birches, Phone 2100-62-414d.

FOR SALE.—A high class Walker American cornet, satin silver finish with gold bell and mountings and pearl buttons. Extra good cornet at reasonable price. Frank C. Jewett—134.

FOR SALE.—Perfection cook stove, burners, in first class condition. Can be seen at 182 Argyle street—410.

FOR SALE.—Eggs for hatching. Guinea fowls, day old, of Barred Rocks, price $2 per setting. Also, cockerels, same strain, price $1 each. Marvin L. Dunphy, The Birches, Phone 2100-62-414d.

FOR SALE.—A high class Walker American cornet, satin silver finish with gold bell and mountings and pearl buttons. Extra good cornet at reasonable price. Frank C. Jewett—134.

FOR SALE.—Perfection cook stove, burners, in first class condition. Can be seen at 182 Argyle street—410.

FOR SALE.—Eggs for hatching. Guinea fowls, day old, of Barred Rocks, price $2 per setting. Also, cockerels, same strain, price $1 each. Marvin L. Dunphy, The Birches, Phone 2100-62-414d.

FOR SALE.—A high class Walker American cornet, satin silver finish with gold bell and mountings and pearl buttons. Extra good cornet at reasonable price. Frank C. Jewett—134.

FOR SALE.—Perfection cook stove, burners, in first class condition. Can be seen at 182 Argyle street—410.

FOR SALE.—Eggs for hatching. Guinea fowls, day old, of Barred Rocks, price $2 per setting. Also, cockerels, same strain, price $1 each. Marvin L. Dunphy, The Birches, Phone 2100-62-414d.

FOR SALE.—A high class Walker American cornet, satin silver finish with gold bell and mountings and pearl buttons. Extra good cornet at reasonable price. Frank C. Jewett—134.