(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, January 14, 1884.

The opening week of the year was a busy and fruitful one in Congress.

Ladies who do their own housework should use E-tey's Fragrant PHILO-DERMA, as it keeps the hands beautifully soft and white. Muny of the three thousand or more bills Weather Proof. which were introduced prior to the holiday adjournment were reported favor-in erecting a new residence in Newcastle ably from Committee, notably Mr. in erecting a new residence in Newcastle for Mr. Donald Morrison. He does not ably from Committee, notably Mr. Dinald Morrison. He does not appear to mind the cold weather, as on Wednesday last, the coldest day for six years past he was engaged in fitting and closing in the top of the tower, in the way of reviving our marine. The virtues of the American hog were ably defended in the House, and retaliatory defended in the House, and retaliatory cold. legislation was proposed to secure to him the right of immigration. Senator Van Wyck raked over the Star Route expenditures, and brought curious detective bills to light. The aggregate expenditures in the Star Route prosecution the memorable Miramicht Fire, makes an appearance among the advertisers this week.
