A DISPUTED VICTORY. the Tug-of-War Contests at Dundurn t be Repeated.

The Tug-of-War Contests at Dundurn to be Repeated. The policemen who competed in the tug-of-war contast at Dundurn Park on July 1st are of the Opinion that they could have easily beaten the Hendrie team, which took second place, had they been allowed to meet it. They are by no means sure either that the Barton team can beat them, and are anxious for another chance to show what they can do. The wholesalers' team is con-fident that it can beat both the Hendrie teams, and the latter both think that they can do utlast and out-pul all the other teams, with a few days' practice. In order, therefore, that these teams may have another chance of showing what they can do; and to allow other teams from the country to enter the lists and thus decide finally to whom the honor of the championship really belongs, Palace Rink, on Jackson streets, for the succasions afollows: Ist prize $60, 2nd prize$30, 3rd $20. An Insurance company Refleved of rays, in Damages. At a recent sitting of the Division Court at Rockton the case of Henderson vs. Bur-bank and the Manufacturer's Life Insurance Company was tried before a jury, who returned a verdict of $52 80 in favor of the plaintiff. The plaintiff claimed that Bur-bank, the agent, had practized deceil in obtaining the signature-of-Henderson to the agreement, and that he had been given a different policy from that which he bar-gained for. This morning Mr. E. Martin moved before Judge Muir to have the ver-dict set aside. Mr. Patten appeared for the plaintiff. After arguing the matter fully the judge gave decision in favor of the defendants, setting saide the verdict with-out costs? The judge remarked that Hen-derson had suffered enough already without putting costs upon him. Notice.

Notice. Meesrs. A. Murray & Co. During the Saturday afternoon early closing period (which we are pleased to see endorsed by the Trades Council), Messrs. A. Murray & Co. have decided to offer their numerous eustomers inducements to purchase, exceed-ing all precedent, and it will be to the advantage of both ladies and gentlemen to look out for their special bargain advertise-ments weekly as they appear and reap the benefit of the bargains. By this early clos-ing movement and by making these great reductions in prices during its continuance, the firm not only confer a boom on their thousands of customers as well, as they are determined, by offering these bargains, to increase rather than diminish their sales in consequence of it. A Toronto Piente Party. A party of about 300 pienickers from Toronto came to athis city by the Macassa and Modjeska on Saturday, and held a pienic at Dundurn. It was composed of the employees of Messrs. Philp & Eckhardt, burial case manufacturers. Anderson's string and brass band accompanied the visitors. The Hamilton undertakers, with the employees and friends, were invited to join in the sport and quite a number of them a ccepted the invitation. The afternoon was pleasantly spent, though the rain coming on, broke up the pienic a little early.

A Little Pitch-in.

A Little Pitch-in. An accident occurred on the street rail-way on Saturday evening, between 6 and 7 o'chock. Two cars were going in the same direction on James street near the Drill Hall, when the head one stopped. The motor man of the rear car shut off, the current when his car was what he thought a safe distance away, but the car slid on the wet rails and pitched into the one in front. The controllers on the ends that came to-gether were destroyed and the ends of the cars damaged. No one was hurt.

A Ghastly Find.

The St. Louis Express due here at 9.15 The St. Louis Express due here at 9.15 yesterday morning, was two hours late. The conductor reported that just after leaving Rochester tre horribly mangled body of a man was found lying alongside the rails. The poor fellow was evidently a railenad man, as he held a railroad lantern tightly clutched in his right hand. He had been run over by a freight train which preceded the express.
