THE THAW TRIAL.

the admissibility to Thaw's statements to Dr. Wagner and Evans in the Tombs following the homicide, Mr. Jerome held that these statements came under the head of self-serving declarations.

Dr. Warner repeated what Thaw had said at great length. The prisoner told of his efforts to have Stanford White punished by appealing to Anthony Comstock and District Attorney Jerome.

The testimony as to Thaw's acquaintance with White was new to the case. Thaw also told me that Miss Nesbit, afterwards his wife, would be led into a high state of nervousness whenever she saw Stanford White.
