their tender mercies, when it seems should be employed to repair health, and to secure a prolonged existence...

I assign as my grand reason why goods should not be employed, the fact that it is a violation of the sixth commandment in the Decalogue. Under the commandment, as it stands in the Assembly's Shorter Catechism, is the following question, "What is required in the sixth commandment?" "That we abstain from all unchaste thoughts, words, and actions."
