

THE WEEK IN NEWCASTLE

Receiving Congratulations
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Delano are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son on the 11 instant.

Acknowledgment
Mr. W. J. Jardine, Treasurer, acknowledges receipt of the following subscription to the Patriotic Fund: W. J. Wilson, M. D., $25.00.

Young Girl's Death
The death of Miss Irene Vickers, of Blackville, took place at the Hotel Dieu Hospital on Saturday, aged 16 years.—Commercial.

Barracks Completed
The soldiers at the garrison are now housed comfortably for the winter in their new barracks, and the tents have been taken down.

Supreme Court
The Supreme Court closed Friday after a ten days' session. The case of the Maritime Foundry Company vs Lee and McCullam of Tabusiat, resulted in a verdict of $550 for the plaintiff.

Splendid Window Displays
In taking a walk around to the different stores in town, one cannot help but be struck with the beauty and magnificence of the window displays of Xmas novelties. It certainly reflects great credit on the part of those who dressed them.

To Undergo Treatment
Col. and Mrs. G. W. Morsereau of Doaktown, who were guests this week of their daughter, Mrs. H. F. McLeod, have gone to Montreal, where Mrs. Morsereau will undergo treatment with her son, Dr. Morsereau, who is at present practicing there.—Thursday's Gleaner.

S. of T. Rally Night
To-morrow night (Thursday) will be rally night at Newcastle Division Sons of Temperance. A program will be carried out. Rev. Wm. Harrison will address the members. The order is now in a flourishing condition, and it is expected that all members will be present on Thursday night, as matters of importance are to come before the Division.

Report True
A startling report was in circulation yesterday morning, coming from Fredericton, that half the British fleet had been annihilated in the North Sea by German submarines and airships, which caused great excitement until the afternoon papers were received which made no mention of such a disaster. The story was too absurd in the first place, and Fredericton says the report originated from a German newspaper.

JOB PRINTING

Look over your stock of stationery and see if there is anything you are in need of. If so ring up Telephone 23 and a representative of The Advocate Printery will call for your order. We have all the facilities for turning out first class work. Give us a trial order.

More Bargains
The Advocate this issue contains more new advertisements and more bargains. Be sure and read them all, and reap the benefit.

Enjoyed Skating
A large crowd enjoyed the good skating on the river on Sunday. There were many from Chatham who skated up. Monday's soft spell put a damper on the sport.

Recovered from Illness
Mr. George M. McDade, who has been ill with pneumonia at Halifax, N. S., has fully recovered from his illness and has resumed his studies at Dalhousie Law School.

If Wanted, Phone
If you are in need of printing, phone this office, 23, or 72-71 which is the house number of Mr. W. S. Cale, our representative, and your wants will be attended to immediately.

Successful Trip
Mr. W. S. Cale, who is representing The Advocate, has just returned from a successful trip to Richibucto in the interests of this paper. While there Mr. Cale secured the services of a correspondent who will supply the Advocate each week with local happenings from that locality. A good batch will be found in this issue.

Reid-Sutherland
A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Sutherland, Cassilis, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 9th, when their youngest daughter, Mina, was united in marriage to Mr. Wilfrid Reid, of Newcastle. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jas. F. McCurdy, B. A., at seven o'clock.

The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her brother Findlay to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Rena Russell. The bride was attractively dressed in silk trimmed over white Paillette silk, trimmed with white swansdown. She wore the bridal veil and orange blossoms, with a beautiful bouquet of white roses, asters and trailing arbutus.

FUNERAL HELD ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Young Harry Woods, of Douglastown, Laid to Rest—Funeral Largely Attended

The first drowning accident of the season occurred on Wednesday night last at Douglastown, when Harry Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woods, while skating, lost his life by skating into a hole.

The young man was about twenty years of age. The body was recovered on Thursday morning, and the funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, interment in St. Mark's cemetery. Rev. Alex. Firth and Past W. M. Robt. Grey and Secretary R. Stirling Wood, of Wycliffe L. O. L., conducted the services. The hymn sung at the service in the house was "Hold Thou My Hand."

The attendance was very large. Beautiful wreaths were sent by Wycliffe Lodge, by the Douglastown Brass Band, of which deceased was drummer, and others. The pallbearers, all Orangemen, were John Anderson, Douglas Atkinson, Allison Grey, Hubert Kirkpatrick, David Sikes and Allan Stewart.

Besides his parents, the following brothers and sisters survive: Mrs. Archibald Bowman and Miss Blanche Wood, of Boston; Elmer, Howard, George and Robert, Jr., of Douglastown, all of whom have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad loss.

The house was prettily decorated with cut flowers.
The presents were numerous and handsome, including a piano from her brothers, and a silver service as well as a well filled travelling suit case from the groom. After a sumptuous supper and a pleasant evening, the happy couple left on the Maritime Express for Montreal, Toronto and Niagara Falls. All join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Reid much happiness through life.

Second Quarterly Meeting
At the second quarterly meeting of the Newcastle Methodist church, Monday night, Rev. Wm. Harrison, D. D., now in the third year of his pastorate here, was unanimously invited to remain another year. The finances were reported in good order. John H. Ashford, H. D. Atkinson and H. H. Stuart were chosen members of the local Social Service and Evangelism committee. The members of the Sunday School Committee were reappointed.
