Dr. Taylor answered.

In the Examiner of Monday last Dr. Taylor has a letter half a column long, in which he makes a labored effort to induce the public to believe that he was not actuated by motives of religious prejudice on the occasion of his moving a vote of thanks to Rev. Mr. Fullerton, for his lecture on "Mary Queen of Scots," to which we referred last week. But the leopard cannot change his spots, and the Dr. must imagine he is addressing a very credulous community, if he thinks his professions of impartiality will be unqualifiedly accepted. We have no personal quarrel with Dr. Taylor; it is only with the opinions to which he has given expression that we are dealing. But let him not "lay the flattering unction to his soul," that if Catholics think proper to attend a public lecture on a historical subject they will, for the time being, lay aside their manhood and refuse to resent such insults as he or anyone else may think proper to fling at their religion. We reiterate that the language used by him in moving the vote of thanks in question, could scarcely be described as anything else than "brutal." Moreover it was not the first time Dr. Taylor expressed himself in a manner to leave no doubt in the mind of any reasonable man that he was actuated by anti-Catholic prejudice. He is known to have gone to Halifax to inquire into the workings of the schools conducted by a Catholic Sisterhood. On his return he held up his hands in holy horror and acted as if a cold shiver were creeping down his spinal column, because he saw in those schools a crucifix and other emblems peculiar to the Catholic religion. Not satisfied with his outrageous and unfounded statements regarding Mary Queen of Scots, the occasion of the lecture in question, he repeats and elaborates them in the public press. It would be interesting to learn how Mary Queen of Scots could have been guilty of "political misdeeds" worthy of death during the eighteen years of her imprisonment, surrounded as she was by the spies and minions of Queen Elizabeth; or what her "great opportunities" for "making her mark in the world," while on during this cruel captivity. Dr. Taylor's assertion that "Mary was a party to several plots, which had for their object the murder of Elizabeth," we simply and unqualifiedly deny. In making this and his other unfounded assertions against the good name of Mary Queen of Scots, Dr. Taylor is but revamping stale slanders that have, time and again been refuted, although put forward by very much cleverer men than he. In the course of his letter Dr. Taylor makes one statement which, in our opinion, most accurately describes himself. It is this: "A great many people cannot discuss important public affairs without allowing their peculiar racial and sectarian prejudices to influence them." Now, we imagine that if Dr. Taylor had written a volume he could not have more accurately described his peculiar mental tendency. With the evidence here presented it must be patent to every reasonable person that Dr. Taylor is the last man in the world that should set himself up as an apostle of liberty and toleration.

We inadvertently omitted to acknowledge before now the receipt of the "Official Handbook of the Dominion of Canada," published by the authority of the Minister of the Interior. This is a volume of one hundred and sixteen pages with colored cover and a map of the Dominion and splendidly illustrated. It contains a vast amount of information concerning the area of the Dominion, its population, constitution and government, municipal system, education, administration of justice, and nearly every possible question of a public nature. Each of the Provinces is described, and its peculiar features dwelt upon. It is certainly the best book of the kind concerning the Dominion that we have yet seen.

A very severe snow storm, which began during Monday night, raged here yesterday forenoon. Great snow drifts resulted, and the railway line was pretty well blocked. There were no trains moving in the forenoon. In the afternoon the trains from "Ovens and Georgetown" started out, and arrived here about six o'clock. About two o'clock a train left here for Summerside. About midnight it reached Hunter River where it met the train from Tignish. The train from Cape Traverse reached Summerside about midnight, consequently the line is open for traffic once more.

Archbishop's Pastoral.

We publish to-day the Pastoral issued by Archbishop Begin, of Quebec, promulgating the Encyclical of our Holy Father the Pope, on the Manitoba Schools. This is a scholarly, able and exhaustive document that goes to the very root of the question, and touches every feature of it. So fully does this Pastoral deal with every phase of the question under consideration that the other Bishops of Canada have adopted it. This Pastoral lays down the interpretation that is to be put upon the Pope's Encyclical, and interdicts all contrary interpretations. This Pastoral, together with the Encyclical, both of which we have published, are not only worthy of careful reading and re-reading, but of being carefully preserved for future reference. The Encyclical contains a luminous exposition of the teachings of the Church on the question of education, and the Pastoral is an admirable complement of the Encyclical, and gives it its true interpretation. Possessing a knowledge of these two famous documents no Catholic can have any doubt as to the policy of the Church, or as to the attitude he is conscientiously bound to assume towards the question of the Manitoba schools. It may not be out of place to reiterate what we have already pointed out; that the decision of the Pope was not sought by any member of that episcopate. Neither was it sought by any member of the Conservative party of Canada. The Canadian hierarchy well knew that they were right in their contentions regarding the moral and legal aspects of the case, and the Conservatives, as a Government, and as a party, knew that no other course than that pursued by them was in accordance with provisions of the constitution. The interference of Rome was sought, as we have already pointed out, by Mr. Laurier and his friends. They have got the decision, what do they propose doing about it? So far as this question is concerned, they are now like dumb dogs. No doubt they consider silence golden at the present time. No doubt they thus reason with themselves: The Manitoba minority were robbed of their constitutional rights by our friends; when the Conservatives undertook to restore those rights, we, with the pretence of doing better than our opponents, deceived the people and obtained power. Not only did we deceive the people, but we deceived the Bishops. We then did our best to deceive the Pope, but we did not succeed. He decided in favor of the Bishops. We know the Manitoba minority have suffered and are suffering on account of the robbery that has been made upon them; but the only course for us to pursue is to keep quiet, for fear Dalton McCarthy and his friends may raise a storm against us and we may be in danger of losing office. Is not that a sorry plight for men calling themselves statesmen to be placed in?

This is nomination day for the civil elections. A Mayor, Councilmen and Water Commissioner will be nominated, who will be voted for this day week. In accordance with a resolution passed at the public meeting of citizens, held in the Market Hall last Wednesday night, a book will be placed at each poll wherein the electors may put themselves on record, in parallel columns, for or against sewerage. In this way it is hoped to obtain a fairly accurate expression of opinion regarding the introduction of a system of sewerage for the city.

ABSCISS WAS LANCED.
"I had an abscess on one of my hips. It was lanced and never healed. Hospital treatment failed. The next winter I had three abscesses. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon found it was helping me. When I had taken about six bottles I was cured." Mrs. FRANKLIN H. TREB, Freeport, N. B.

DEADLY KIDNEY DISEASE.

The only way to apply the Great Destroyer. One clear to the individual that kidney disease is a result of uric acid and oxalate of lime, which have their place in the human system, bandaging and forming into stone-like substances, and the folly of treating such a disease with any medicine other than a "fluid" and one that will dissolve these solids, there will be little tripping with pills, powders and remedies of this character, which can not possibly effect a permanent cure. The essence of Smith's American Kidney Cure is due to the fact that as a liquid it immediately reaches the diseased part, and dissolves these alkaline and hard substances. It never fails. NEWS OF THE WEEK.

A despatch of January 31st to London, from Wady, Halls, says there are unconfirmed reports that the Dervishes under Osman Digna, have commenced an advance.

NO MATTER.

No matter how obstinate the cough, how severe the cold, NORWAY PINK SYRUP will cure and cure quickly. No other remedy equals it in curative power over throat and lung troubles.

The Odessa correspondent of the London Times, telegraphed, as follows, on Jan 31st: A volunteer fleet will convey in the quickest time practicable over ten thousand Russians to the far east. The first cruiser with two thousand men will leave in a few days.

INSTANT RELIEF guaranteed by using MILBURN'S STERLING HEADACHE POWDERS. No depressing after-effect.

Russia is about to present a note to Turkey demanding payment for the whole balance of the indemnity of the Russo-Turkish war, amounting to $28,000,000, with a view of making the Sultan more docile in the settlement of the Cretan question.

Tenders were opened in New York last Wednesday for the carriage across the continent of five hundred reindeer, which are now being loaded on the steamer Manitoba, in Norway, for the United States' relief expedition to Yakut. The Canadian Pacific was the "lowest tenderer" by $200, and will likely get the contract. The bids have been referred to Washington for decision.

In anticipation of the new immigration law going into effect, the rush of immigrants to the United States has started in earnest. The first steamship to bring a noticeable large crowd of immigrants arrived at New York on Thursday last. She is the Tartar Prince, and had seven hundred and twenty persons in the steerage. The vessel comes from Italian ports. Most of the new arrivals would be excluded under the operation of the proposed new law.

WANT TO KEEP YOUR NEURALGIA

Of course you don't; so you should take Scott's Emulsion. It is a fact that this remedy cures it; and it cures nervousness, nerve debility and insomnia also.

General Westmacott, telegraphs from Camp Mamamam to Calcutta, on January 31st, that the fourth brigade became entangled in a gorge near Shamkham, Saturday, and suffered serious losses. Lieutenant Colonel Houghton, Lieutenant Sweeney, Dowdall, Hughes, and Walder, together with fifteen men of the Yorkshire Light Infantry and three Sikhs were killed. Major Earle, Lieutenant Hall and 31 men of the Yorkshires were wounded, Major Earle severely. The receipt of the despatch has caused a great sensation.

The funeral of Joseph Handley, who was the largest man in Philadelphia took place a few days ago, and the undertaker who had charge of the funeral ceremonies, had no other troubles before the former giant was laid to rest. Handley weighed between 500 and 600 pounds, and was over four feet broad across the shoulders. The undertaker could find no coffin in the city large enough for his body, and was forced to build one, the dimensions of which were 7 feet in length, 4 1/4 feet in width and 2 1/2 feet in depth. The coffin was supported by iron bands and before it could be carried from the house, the door jams had to be removed. A hearse large enough to receive the coffin could not be secured, and it was taken to the cemetery in an open wagon. The coffin together with the body weighed 1200 pounds, and was rolled up the aisle of the church on a rubber tired truck. It was intended to have the interment at Old Cathedral Cemetery, but the entrance of the receiving vault was too narrow for the funeral was forced to go to Holy Cross cemetery. Deceased was 48 years of age and had served on the police force.

The San Francisco Examiner of the 19th January, says: "I now transpire that the big Lenore, and not the W. G. Irwin, was the winner of the long-distance race from Honolulu to this port. The Lurline left Kahului twenty-four hours after the remainder of the fleet sailed from Honolulu. She cast anchor in the harbor twenty minutes ahead of the Irwin. Captain McLeod can boast of having the fastest vessel in the sugar fleet. Captain McLeod belongs to Orwell, P. E. Island. Six vessels started on the race. Five of the vessels sailed from Honolulu, 2,100 miles from San Francisco, on the morning of December 31st, all leaving within four hours of each other. The Lurline sailed from Kahului, Hawaiian Islands, the same day, but the fact was not known to the rest of the fleet until two days later. The voyage was made in 16 days. Old shipmasters say that the performance of the six vessels is without comparison in the history of any port or ocean and may be reckoned as one of the things that occur once in a thousand years."

18 YEARS TOWN CONSTABLE.

Mr. B. Knisley, Hagarville, Ont., holds the record of having been town constable for 18 years. Mr. Knisley says: "I was cured of kidney and bladder weakness by three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. I often had to rise five or six times in the night on account of bladder weakness. The pills entirely did away with this annoying symptom. I highly recommend them for all kidney or bladder troubles."

NOTES OF CATHOLICS AND OF ALL CITIZENS REGARDING THE FUTURE.

It is not enough to state the injustices committed and the insufficiency of the means heretofore proposed for the reparation thereof; it is important to trace out a line of conduct for the future. And this is done by Leo XIII. in the last part of his Encyclical.

1.—Catholics are bound to strive to reconquer, by all legal means at their disposal, all their rights in their persons. Such, says the Pope, must be the aim in view, such the object to be pursued with zeal and prudence.

2.—In this difficult struggle, in which all should have the same ambition and the same desire, to render entire justice to the minority, if honest differences of opinion may occur, nevertheless these various sentiments, stated with all moderation and charity, finish by being effaced and blended into a certain manner into a common sentiment and a brotherly unanimity. The principle of such unity of action is the episcopal authority and direction, without which nothing must be done nor undertaken: non sine concilio agendum.

3.—The Catholics of Manitoba must be disposed, as they have always been, to accept, without ceasing to claim entire justice, the partial reparations which they may obtain, provided, naturally, that they agree with the doctrine of the Church and cause to disappear from the schools the neutral teaching condemned by the Sovereign Pontiff.

4.—The Holy Father, trusting in the co-operation of the case of the Catholics, expresses the hope that, owing to the equity and the real prudence we have a right to expect from our governments, owing also to the good will and the spirit of all Canadians, this thorny question will finish by reaching a thoroughly satisfactory solution. He also greatly relies, to reach this end, on the loyal and enlightened concurrence of journalists, whose task is so noble and so important, but who may worthily fulfil their mission only by respecting the rights of truth, of justice, of religion, and by obediently following the episcopal directions: Veneratur ac sancte observant episcoporum euctoritatem.

5.—As long as justice will not have been obtained, the Catholics will aid with their alma in the support of the Catholic schools of Manitoba, and they cannot perform a better and holier work. For our part, we desire that the "Work of the Manitoba School-people," approved by the Holy See, be encouraged by all the Catholics of our diocese.

6.—The Bishops must provide by their authority, and with the aid of those who direct educational establishments, that a full programme of studies be carefully and wisely elaborated, and that such only be admitted as professors who are endowed with the qualities requisite for the functions of a solid and profoundly religious teaching.

Such, Our dearly beloved brethren, is the Encyclical of Leo XIII, of which the official translation into French was sent to Us by the Holy Father himself. What it declares, what it prescribes, what it counsels, we have just made known to you, in the fulfilment of the office of Our pastoral charge, and we interdict, as most disrespectful to his Holiness, all contrary interpretation.

Nothing remains to Us now but to appeal to that spirit of faith and submission with which we know you to be animated towards the Holy See. We are desirous to proclaim it aloud: We have above all political parties: We have no intention to be bound to any. What we desire is the triumph of a sacred cause and not the triumph of party. And this triumph, we hope that all men of heart, all friends of justice and liberty will help Us to obtain it.

There is no question of coming back upon an unfortunate past; this is the hour of a complete, entire reparation that we expect, and that hour, all sympathies, every noble courage, every generous kindness must strive to hasten. Let public men therefore unite together and have recourse to the means that wisdom and patriotism shall inspire them to put an end to the violent state of things we are all enduring. They know the means of action authorized by the Constitution. Let justice come from the government of Winnipeg, induced to repair the injustice committed; let it come to us from the Federal government, by an efficacious and abiding law, as we have already demanded, or even, were it possible, from the Imperial government; We shall rejoice thereat, and the heart of the Sovereign Pontiff—We know it—will be consoled.

In the name of justice, in the name of that harmony that should reign among all the citizens of the same country, we invite Protestants—whom a diversity of belief does not prevent from being our brothers—to give us their hand and to work with us. Already many of their number, by what they have done in the past, have deserved our gratitude, of which we here offer them the sincere expression. All, such is Our hope, will listen to Our voice; they will treat that small but valiant minority of Manitobans as they would be treated themselves were they in their place. We rely upon them, and—let it be known to them—the victory that we shall win will be theirs as well as Ours, for it will be the victory of right and of liberty.

The present pastoral letter shall be delivered and published at the pruned of all churches and parochial chapels or where public worship is held and in Churches in religious communities, the Sunday following its reception.

Given at Quebec under our signature, the seal of the Archbishop and the counter signature of Our Secretary, the sixth of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

By order of His Grace, B. PH. GARNETT, P.M., Secretary.

Years of Suffering From Rheumatism Relieved by One Dose of Medicine.

"For many years," writes Mrs. N. Ferris, wife of the well-known birch manufacturer of Hingham, Cal., "I was sorely afflicted with rheumatic pains in my ankles, and at times was almost disabled. I tried everything, as I thought, and doctored for years without much benefit. Though I had lost confidence in medicine, I was induced to try South American Nervine Cure. To my delight the first dose gave me more relief than I had had in years, and two bottles have completely cured me. You can publish this letter." Sold by Geo. E. Hughes.
