The New York Tribuse is responsible for the following, which we suppose is "on the survey."

A rather young man, whose features exhibited every symptom of having been alightly tinged with enerald, lately entered a jewelry store in New York, and gazing earnestly into the show case re marked:

"You've got a heap of mighty pretty breast pins thar, mister. What mount you ask for 'em."

"What sort of a pin would you like to look at i" asked the merchant.

"Well I dunno," said the visitor pointing to a plain masonic pin, (the compass and square) "much is that yer!"

BLACK HAIR IN THE ASCENDANT — The London Corul Journal says that dark hair, so long neglected and despised, is again in the astendant. The blonde is now declared to have maintained her rule so long by variety of artifice, that she can, now that her eunning devices are known, be classified as follows: The Gothic Irish (readdish), the Saxon English (dark yellow), the little ridiculous blonde (short, curly golden), the cephalis blonde (orange tint), and the lymphatic blonde (pale straw color). Among all these, the cephalic berange-golden has always been considered the most to be dreaded by men who seek for peace of mind, a calm life, and a happy end.

IDLENESS.—If idleness does not produce vice or malevolence, it commonly produces melancholy; therefore let every man be occupied in the highest employment of which his nature is capable; and if he is suffering from rheumatic pains, colds or summer complaints, and desirous of getting immediate relief, let him try a bottle of the "Canadian Pain Destroyer." It can be had at any Druggist's, and most of the country merchants in the Dominion, at 25 cents per bottle. IDLEMESS. —If idleness does not produces
