

The Poet's Corner.

To Barn's Sleeve Buttons. The Toronto Mail says:—"The following graceful lines are from the pen of Mr. R. S. Chilton, U.S. consul at Goderich, who is the proud possessor of a pair of sleeve-buttons which once belonged to the famous Scottish bard, Mr. Chilton has no small reputation as a poet among his countrymen, having been selected to write the lines read by him on the recent occasion of the interment in America of the remains of John Howard Payne, author of "Home, Sweet Home."

These gate buttons, silver-set, Once served to hold his sleeves together. Who sang, as sings the lark yet Upsoaring from the purple heather. Beneath them pulsed his heart's warm tide. Perchance, when 'neath the hawthorn's blossom. He clasped white scented by her side, His Highland Mary to his bosom!

Of poet-possent, what a shower Thy crowd, let whate'er befall! What rainbow tints thy magic power With all things common blended!

But more than all, and best of all For maid or sung by others, Thy crowd, let whate'er befall! That all mankind are brothers!

Before the shrines of rank and birth, No knee was thine for bowing! Thy king was Manhood, and the earth Grew richer for thy ploughing!

Mr. Frank Bender, writing from Seaforth, says: "I purchased one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters to purify my blood. It did purify it, and now I have excellent health." As a blood purifying tonic and system regulator the result of taking B. B. B. is always successful.
