

DISTRICT NEWS

FORT SASKATCHEWAN

Bulletin News Service. On Tuesday afternoon and evening last two most interesting and profitable meetings were held in the town hall here for poultry fanciers. The meetings were addressed by A. W. Foley, poultry expert of the Provincial Department of Agriculture. The meetings were also to have been addressed by T. P. Mason, a representative of the live stock department, Ottawa, but owing to the few present at both afternoon and evening meetings, they were postponed. The poultry, the dairy, problems were not discussed by Mr. Mason, but the entire time taken up in the two poultry meetings.

MISS JESSIE FORBES LEFT LAST WEEK

For the purpose of taking a course in the Grand Trunk business college. Rev. Canon d'Esau is expected to relinquish the charge of St. George's parish church at the end of this month. Bishop Pinkham has offered the incumbency of same to Rev. W. H. Wilkinson, M.A., who is at present rector of North Edmonton, who will probably accept.

THE DEATH OF MR. T. SHIPLEY, OF VEGREVILLE

but formerly of this community on Wednesday last, deceased only being ill a few days. Rev. A. Forbes left for Vegreville on Friday to conduct the funeral.

L.I.D. 26, T. 4, DIVISION NO. 1

A meeting of the residents of this district was held at Stewart's Mill on January 8th for the purpose of nominating a councillor and other business of local interest. The meeting was opened for nominations at 7 o'clock and closed at twelve o'clock noon. There were three nominations, viz. C. F. Currie, A. Plante and E. Fleming. The polls will be open on Monday, 13th day of January, at Stewart's Mill, when the councillor for the district will be elected for the current year. After the time for nominations had elapsed the meeting resolved into a discussion as to the possibility of getting a school and post office established in the district. Committees were appointed to look after these matters. Mr. Merrigan, Mr. Baldwin and Mr. Plante being on the post office committee, Mr. Currie, Mr. Tompkins and Mr. Brown on the school committee. The east end committee, which are Mr. Plante, Mr. Fleming and Mr. Deslauriers. The meeting was fairly representative of the community, with one-third of the resident land-holders present, which goes to show the people of this district are alive to matters of public interest.

VEGREVILLE

Bulletin News Service. The esteem in which the late T. W. Shipley was held was shown in the funeral services which were held on Thursday. The funeral services were in charge of Vegreville Lodge No. 10, Knights of Pythias, of which he was a member. There were several distinguished members from Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan. The following brethren were present: J. B. Holden, J. B. Holden, C. G. Gordon, A. L. Horton, E. Morrison, T. Tate, and W. McKenzie. There were many floral tributes placed on the casket.

CHIPMAN

Messrs. Foley and Mason addressed an assembly of farmers. The talk was interesting. Mr. Foley, talking of the future of the district, said that there were good and bad methods of doing things. He also showed the company how to draw a part of a bird. The night Misses Dickenson and Bledsoe gave a concert. Mr. Babyns resigned from the employment of Messrs. Harvey and Simons. Abbe Wiley is in charge of store and post office. The blacksmith is doing costume choppin. Miss Maud and Gordon Harris are visiting in Edmonton. Chipman, January 10.

RED DEER

The wedding took place Wednesday of Miss Sadie Fulmer, daughter of L. C. Fulmer, to R. E. Berry, of Vernon, B.C. Rev. W. G. W. Fortune performed the ceremony. The happy couple left on yesterday's noon train for their future home in Vernon, B.C. Wm. Postell and Wm. Postell, Jr., left today for their ranch in the Hand Hills. The funeral of the late Mrs. Bella McBrayne took place yesterday morning. Beg. Welton returned Wednesday from Lacombe, where he has been working for the past two weeks. In returning from a funeral Wednesday morning, the pall-bearers' team took fright at the bottom of the cemetery hill and ran a mile to town, passing company with the demagogue near the school. George W. Green and S. N. Carscallen jumped, and were unhurt, while Mrs. McKee and the driver stayed with it, and would probably have got the team under control had the tongue not dropped. Mr. Greene had his ankle sprained. The quadrille club dance was held on Friday evening in the Lyric. About twenty couples were present. E. Payne, of Erskine, was in town last week. P. T. Zumwalt, a farmer, living a few miles out of town, was arrested last week on the charge of forgery and perjury in company with T. J. Farmer, who has since been brought from Edmonton. The charge was laid by James Perry. Zumwalt is out on $2,000 bail. H. G. Stone, the undertaker, has purchased a thousand dollar horse.

RAMFURLY

Bulletin News Service. The Ramfurlly Literary and Debating Society met again last evening, the debate for the evening being: "Resolved that the present financial stringency is beneficial to Canada." The affirmative was taken by Messrs. Johnson and Austin, and the negative by Messrs. McDougall and Ogilvie. The negative won.

RED DEER

Goal. Smith. Cover. Young. Rover. Davies. Right. Shields. Centre. D. McCutcheon. Referee. D. Smith. The game was fast and fairly clean, there being only two penalties for rough play during the first half, and none in the second.
