

Evening Telegram Fashion Plates.

The Home Dressmaker should keep a Catalogue Scrap Book of our Pattern Cuts. These will be found very useful to refer to from time to time.

9621.—A POPULAR STYLE FOR THE GROWING GIRL.

Girl's Middy Suit.

White chambray with facings, cuffs and belt of blue was used for this design. It will look equally well in other combinations of color. Blue ratine with facings of white or self color would be effective. The design is also appropriate for gingham, linen, linene, corduroy, voile, or serge. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. It requires 4 3/8 yards of 36 inch material for a 10 year size. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

9610.—A POPULAR MODEL.

Ladies' Waist.

This design is easy to develop, and will look well in any of this season's dress materials. The right front laps over the left in lapel or revers style. Deep Gibson tucks give breadth to the figure. The short sleeve is finished with a neat and pretty cuff, and a deep collar cut with Robespierre edges over the front, trims the neck edge. The pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. It requires 3 3/4 yards of 24 inch material for a 36 inch size. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

The World's Wealthiest Man.

The Tsar of Russia is the wealthiest man in all the world, far richer even than John D. Rockefeller or any of the Rothschilds. His civil list alone amounts to something like $2,500,000 a year, and more than a half of this is available for his own private use.

In addition, the Tsar owns land in European Russia, equal in area to the whole of Ireland, and derives from it the colossal revenue of £5,000,000 per annum. And then he also owns land in Siberia which, even in its present undeveloped state brings him in well over £1,000,000 a year.

The Tsar's annual income, including the interest on his savings, has been estimated at £7,500,000.

Seeing, therefore, that the Tsar puts aside every year a large sum of money for each of his four daughters, the prince who contracts a marriage in that quarter, is likely to do extremely well for himself from a worldly point of view.

Football.

The Feildians and Casuals contested in last evening's football match on St. George's Field, resulting in two goals to one in favor of the Feildians. The match on the whole was fairly good, but only a small number of spectators were present. At 7 o'clock the Feildians outclassed their opponents and were not long in notching up their first goal through Rendell. Less than five minutes later Pinsent netted No. 2. No further scoring was done until the second half when during a scrimmage the Casuals got their one and only goal. The players were: Feildians—Goal, Riley; backs, Rendell, Hewitt; halves, Strong, Bernard, Rowsell; forwards, Lush, Wood, Pincent, C. Rendell, Winter. Casuals—Goal, Foster; backs, Dick, Clark; halves, Searle, Stevenson, Gardner; forwards, Innis, Reid, Smith, Cunningham, Green.

Wedding Bells.

At Broad Cove, Tuesday, at 7 p.m., a very pretty wedding took place, when Const. Alex. Tucker, until recently of the Station, St. John's East, led to the altar Miss Elizabeth Clarke, daughter of Mr. James Clarke. A large number of the friends of the happy couple were present in the church and the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Canon Smith. The groom was assisted by his uncle, Mr. John Tucker and the bride by her sister Miss Clarke. After the ceremony the many friends of the happy pair were driven to Tucker's Hill, where a wedding supper was held and the festivities were kept up till a late hour next day. The Premier, and Messrs. Bennett and Kennedy were amongst the guests. The bride received many pretty and useful presents. The groom having been transferred to Greenspond, will live there with his bride in future. To the newly wedded couple the Telegram extends its felicitations.

Fell From Aloft.

A young man, Duhal Reid, one of the crew of the three-masted schooner Tobiatic, discharging salt at J. W. Hodge's, fell from half way up the mizen topmast to the deck on Thursday. In falling his foot struck the cross-trees hard enough to dislodge one of his sea boots, which he was wearing. Fortunately, however, he managed to clutch the throat hal-yards in falling, which slightly checked his fall, enabling him to keep upright and land on his feet. No bones were broken, but the foot which struck the cross-trees was much bruised, as well as his leg, and he will be compelled to lie off for a while. Reid is a Newfoundlander.—Twillingate Sun.

Hr. Grace Notes.

As we write, 1.30, we are being treated to a shower of hail, something unusual, as it is so near mid-summer.

The Labrador men that left yesterday, will no doubt have a quick run to the coast. A few of the more northern planters will get away next week.

News was received here yesterday of the death of Mr. John T. Lynch, in the Straits. Mr. Lynch, who was of a very quiet manner, was a school teacher, and a few days ago word was received that he was ill of Bright's Disease. The sad news of his death is a great blow to his widowed mother, as he was an only child. He was about 25 years of age. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the sorrowing mother.

Mrs. Edward Corbett, of Bristol's Hope, died on Tuesday, after a long illness. This is the wife of an unfortunate man Edward Corbett, who is suffering from cancer, and to whom reference was made in a recent issue of the Telegram. Mrs. Corbett leaves one young child, to mourn her death.

Mrs. (Judge) Oke and Miss Gladys Oke, were at Carbonear yesterday on a visit to Dr. and Mrs. Boyle.

The sociable and concert held by the Methodist Choir in Coughlan Hall, on Tuesday night, was a great success. The British band favored the audience with some very pretty selections, that were enjoyed by the gathering. The cup that cheers was very much enjoyed, and one young man who is contemplating matrimony, all but proposed to a young lady who not only looked well herself but seemed determined to make all around her happy.

Fresh salmon sold in the market here on Tuesday morning for 8 cents per pound. The market was well stocked on that and other days this week.

Miss Gertrude Trappell arrived from Montreal by yesterday afternoon's train on a visit to her father, sisters and other friends. She is the guest for the present of her sister Mrs. R. S. Munn, Victoria Street.
