Beauty and the Beast

AT THE CRESCENT.

The most interesting three-reel photoplay seen for some time is Andrew Lang's famous fairy tale "Beauty and the Beast" in three reels. This remarkable production is but the forerunner of a series of two and three reel special features that will be seen at the Crescent with every change for some time. "The Mid-night Alarm" is the joker comedy with Max Aster, a laughable farce with Max at his best. Miss Louise Arkandy, violinist and vocalist is singing one of her best songs and will also be heard in the latest musical selections. A splendid programme which surpasses any bill for some time, is coming. It is the great Southern story that was one of the causes of the Civil War, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in three reels. The world's best motion picture actors are among the cast.

C. L. B. Parade.

The C. L. B., about 200 strong, under command of Lt. Col. Rendell, paraded to afternoon service at St. Mary's Church yesterday, by way of LeMarchant Road, Power and Hutchings Streets.

Rev. H. Uphill conducted the service and preached an eloquent and instructive sermon from the text: "Keep thyself pure." After service return was made to the Armoury by way of Water Street, McBride's and Long's Hills, the band discoursing excellent music along the route. Before the lads were dismissed Lt. Col. Rendell referred to the approaching visit of H. R. H., the Duke of Connaught and outlined the part the brigade will take in the celebrations on that occasion.

We know who he will buy it for? But who will he buy it from? Hundreds of Engagements and Weddings are sealed yearly in Newfoundland with Trappell's Solid Gold Rings. Hundreds of friendships and tokens of affection to sweetheart, wife, mother, sister and friend are embodied in lasting embrace with Trappell's Rings, the popularity of which is based upon their quality, finish and variety of design. Rings for men, women, baby and miss for every occasion. Gem Rings, Chased Rings, Signet Rings, Birthday Rings. Should you have a desire to get a ring of such design as you may create your self, or that you had seen somebody else wear, just take your design to Trappell; there is nothing impossible along these lines for his talented workmen. A splendid assortment of anet stones can be seen if your design calls for a Gem Ring. Ask to be shown the new White Sapphires. They are hard and brilliant like diamonds so much so that they puzzle experts.

Mayor Ellis and the Civic Commission.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Now that the Premier is home we may be expecting the appointment of that pending civic commission. Permit me through the medium of The Evening Telegram to add my prayer to that of your correspondent who have advanced the hope that Mayor Ellis may not be ignored when it comes to selecting gentlemen to represent us on that Commission. I think it is due as an act of courtesy to Mr. Ellis that he be appointed chairman. I feel when I say this, that I am voicing the sentiment of the greater part of the community.

It is hard to think of one who could serve the city in a more faithful and earnest manner, or one who more enjoys the respect and confidence of our people.

It would, I fear, be an act of gross discourtesy to ignore our worthy Mayor, if he would accept the burden of chairmanship. Beside the ethical there are also sound business principles which should induce the selection of Mayor Ellis. He is well qualified to sit on a civic commission by virtue of his intimate knowledge of the city's affairs, gained through years of faithful service.

We are also bound, I think, to recognize the fact that there is a debt of respect due to the other members of the City Council who have served us well and honestly.

If they as a body cannot sit on the commission, I think it would be a nice way of showing our appreciation by selecting their chief magistrate to act as chairman of the new order.

I do not wish to be understood as hinting that there is a desire to ignore Mr. Ellis. It is impossible to think that we will be so discourteous. I merely wish to call those few facts to mind, less by some unintentional oversight the act of disrespect may be committed.

Yours truly,
ARTHUR ENGLISH.

Barney Oldfield.

Red McGhee says: Old Barney Oldfield! That name brings to mind a lot o' speedy things like shots an' shootin' stars. That name has been for years an' years an' auto term, like spark or gears, where ever folks drive cars. On o'val course or Barney horns in on the play with his ol' hoofless steed. His stogie sticks out from his smile, he beats the minute hand each miles—his middle name is Speed.

When cars were just experiments an' racers plowed down miles o' fence in early racin' days, ol' Barney drove a couple heats. He pulled some extra classy feats an' soon became the craze. He brought the Winston Bullets fame an' when they quit the racin' game he drove for other shops. He watched the time to run a mile drop seconds ev'ry little while—he caused a lot o' drops.

He's got some fast miles in him yet, this stogie-chewin' demon vet—he's got the eye an' arm. A dozen years or more he's raced; there ain't no danger he ain't faced, his life must bear a charm. He slaps ol' Death square on the back, a sort o' "howdy, brother" whack, an' gives ol' Death the laugh; then takes his life right in his hands an' shoots around before he stands. He sure can stand the gaff.

NEWS BY CABLE.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, June 14.

The Nationalist Leader, Redmond, is said to have sent several supporters, skilled in organization work, to persuade the local leaders of the National Volunteers to consent to come under the captaincy of the Nationalist Parliamentary Party. That strong resistance will be offered to Redmond's attempt to obtain control of the Volunteer organization is seen by the advice given in this week's issue of the Freeman's Journal, which charges the Parliamentary party with attempting to disrupt the Volunteer movement, and declares that complete harmony reigned among the different sections of the Volunteer body until the heads of the party interfered. The Journal, denouncing Redmond's action, says that the Irish people cannot submit to amateur military headships. The Westford Free Press claims that the Volunteer movement only began to progress when Redmond gave it his encouragement, and therefore, Redmond is entitled to obtain control. Whatever may be the outcome of the dispute, it adds that it constitutes another difficult factor in the Irish problem.

MEADOW BROOK, via Westbury.

New York, June 14.

Completely demoralized by the splendid work of the English challengers, the American team went down to defeat here this afternoon in the first game of the match for the International Polo Cup, by a score of 8½ to 3. After the first flurry at the opening points, the American team never held the sway, being outplayed by the representatives of the Hurlingham Club. Forty thousand spectators were present.

HALIFAX, June 14.

A wireless from the s.s. New York, says that the Hamburg-American liner Pretorian from New York, bound for Hamburg, collided with the American liner New York, during a dense fog this morning. Fortunately the blow was a glancing one just abaft the bow. The New York was uninjured, and no panic or undue excitement prevailed aboard her. The shock was so light that many of the passengers were not even awakened. Because of the fog, the New York was stopped at the time of the accident. She proceeded to New York. Nothing is said in the wireless despatch as to whether the Pretorian is damaged, but the indications are that she is not, as the New York reported herself as proceeding to her destination, which she would not have done had there been any serious results from the accident.
