THE WEEK-END NICKEL IS DELIGHTFUL.

The week-end bill at the Nickel Theatre last evening attracted large audiences. There were two two-part films and each was specially good. "The Hazards of Helen" was very interesting as this series always is. Mr. Duguid's singing was splendid and he was warmly applauded by all. This evening the entire programme will be repeated. The Saturday night attendances are always fashionable. Be sure and attend this evening; your friends will be there. The pictures are well worth seeing and the singing and music is the best yet.

MR. HARVEY COLLINS AT THE CRESCENT.

Go to the Crescent to-day and hear Mr. Harvey Collins, the Irish tenor, sing. He is the possessor of a beautifully modulated tenor voice that is a pleasure to hear. The picture programme is a very fine one. "The two feature" "The Hopeless Game" is a great Latin production and one of the most fascinating stories you have seen. "Broncho Billy's Scheme" is a fine Western drama with G. M. Anderson in the leading role. "Kill or Cure" is a comedy drama and "The Honor of the Force" and "Kidnapping the Kid" are two of the funniest comedies. The Crescent is well ventilated, always cool and comfortable and the shows are never disappointing.

BRITISH THEATRE.

Another splendid audience greeted Madame Olive Timmons at the above Theatre last night and showed their great approval by giving her rounds of applause at the conclusion of her extraordinary exhibition of voice-control. She sang two songs the ideas of which are entirely new to this country, both being elaborations by Charles Wakefield Cadman, of Alice C. Fletcher's collection of original Indian melodies. They are wonderful specimens and can only be sung by a true artist of the calibre of Madame Timmons, who apparently transforms the most difficult of compositions into those of remarkable ease. Madame Timmons appears three times to-day—4.15, 8.30 and 10 p.m. On Monday she will sing "Mother Machree" and "Annie Laurie."

Drudgery.

By the adoption of modern gas appliances you may abolish drudgery from your home.

GAS COOKERS eliminate the drudgery of lighting fires, the handling of coal and ashes, and enable you to prepare meals in half the time required with old-fashioned appliances.

GAS WATER HEATERS are indispensable in every well-regulated household.

GAS LIGHTING is best for the eyes and the pocket.

THE PERFECTION GAS IRON is a recent addition to labour, time, and money saving appliances. This Nickel-plated Gas Iron may be had complete with stand and a length of metallic tubing for the small sum of $8.00, and should be in every household.

With the "PERFECTION GAS IRON" a whole day's ironing may be done at a cost of five cents, give better results, and do more work in half the usual time. It is always hot and ready, clean and smooth. Send post card, or phone 97, and the Gas Company will send a man to give practical demonstration of any, or all, up-to-date household appliances.

NOTE.—It is important that Gas Cookers and other appliances be kept perfectly clean and free from grease. Use "SO-KLEAN" enamel cleaner. It will clean with a length of wire. Grease from metal or enamel. 25 cents per packet.—jy23,tf

EVIL RENOWN.

"What sort of man is Henry Hank?" I asked the cashier at the bank; he sighed, as with regret, and sadly shook his weary head, and swatted seven flies and said, "He doesn't pay his debts." Thus finally the cashier spoke, no explanations did he make—there was no more to say; no use of arguing about for that pronouncement. I said, "The man who doesn't pay a man's forgiven many things as through this busy life he swings, and swears and swats and sweats; a thousand faults we lightly scan, but there's no pardon for the man who doesn't pay his debts. If I had seven silly sons, I'd hand them counsel, I'd set you down as chronic cheats, which reputation kills. Go forth, my beamish boys," I'd say, "and always be as prompt to pay, as you are prompt to buy; and you will flourish then, and thrive, and men will boast you while alive, and praise you when you die."

THE THOUGHTS

"THE CHILD IS FATHER TO THE MAN."

I heard a delightful story the other day about some boys, which illustrates how much can be accomplished by education rightly directed. They were taking part in a concert and were asked to sing a song very much in vogue of late months.

But to the surprise and consternation of the concert manager, they absolutely refused to sing the song because their singing teacher had said it was bad music! "But of the mouths of babes!"

There is the seed of the future there the Hope of Religion and the Hope of all we call Good. And knowing this, how lack are we in letting education proceed along lines that do not raise it above the ordinary activities of life. The boys of to-day are the men of to-morrow, and even so, they are to a great extent, who we make them. The child is a great imitator. It learns our language from our speech and to a certain degree thinks with us, and learns its difference between good and evil from us. Should not Education then be the First Object in any country?

If these boys had been taught singing everything and anything, they would not have known any difference between good and bad music; and all children were taught as these evidently have been, there would be no market for bad music in the world and people would not rest satisfied, they do with every single that pleases the ear, and there would not be thousands of trashy songs turned out as they are by the bushel to-day—especially in the U. S. A.

But we cannot understand why song that we like should be bad, and in this we are little better than children who do not understand why their parents cannot let them do as they like sometimes. When they get older they realize that their parents were right, and in the case of music, it is simply a case of education for the most part.

To most of us it is easier a pleasure to yield to a sense-tickling inclination, and goodness knows the ways are many and wide for us.

EDUCATION.

Of course we cannot manufacture children to our hearts desires, though much of our so-called education leads that way. The child's powers of intellect are fired at birth and we only co-operate in helping the child to a knowledge of his powers and find through them the occupation of life for which he is best suited. Therefore it is absurd to have a hard and fast curriculum for no children are wholly adapted for the same system of instruction on the same end in life. The child's nature must expand. It must become conscious of its own powers and the life in which these powers should best find development. Not by competitive examination by any means there should be no violent or strain effort—no envious or arduous effort.
