I'm living up to my reputation for doing unique things in an unique way. I'm not satisfied with giving better value than others; I like to make one supreme effort once in a while.

Try to match this value elsewhere—and they'll tell you you want the earth. No, I don't believe there's a 50c. tie in the city of any kind that'll wear longer than a month. But Bengaline "wears like a board"—that's it. If you're a terror on ties, save your money and temper by adding a few Bengalines to your collection. Two ties free to the man who can put a lasting wrinkle into a Bengaline Tie while in the store. Buy four, buy six, buy a dozen, for after the Regatta the price goes back to 75c.
