Presentation to President

The Gaelic League met last evening at the home of Mrs. Walsh, to discuss matters dealing with the future of the League was discussed. A large gathering was present, and the speaker, Mr. Walsh, presented several reports from the sub-committees were submitted and adopted, and future plans were outlined for the coming year. The League is growing rapidly, and will be heard from in the future in athletics and community work.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mr. Walsh, B.E., announced his resignation as President owing to his being for New York where he will be in the future. Mr. Walsh in a address thanked the League, and wished him since his coming to St. John's and said he would always cherish the recollections of Newfound Irishmen and women who always stood firm to the appeals made for recognition as a Gaelic League.

At the conclusion of his resignation Mr. Walsh was cheered to the echo. Each member shook hands with him and wished him the best of his in his new home. The adjournment Mr. Denis O'Connell on behalf of the League, asked Mr. Walsh to accept a beautiful handkerchief as a memento, and a musical watch, as an appreciation of his help to him for his services in re-erecting the flames of the Nationalism during the past years.

Mr. Walsh replied in fitting words, and which the meeting adjourned with the singing of "He's a jolly good fellow". Mrs. Walsh leave by the Saturday for their future home in New York City.

Good Fishing.

A good sport of fishing at Petty Harbour which prevailed last week was a sign of slackening off. On Monday all the traps had big fish but owing to stormy weather had to be let go. At Witless all the traps did well yesterday.

Magistrate's Court.

A drunk was granted his freedom. A motorist summoned for breaking a breach of the Street Traffic Regulations, was postponed until Monday next. Inspector Sparrow summoned two boys into court for mis-conducting themselves in Beauséjour Park. After receiving some good sound advice for their mis-behaviour they were allowed to go upon paying costs. An assault case was postponed until Wednesday next. A case for non-support preferred by wife against husband, was amicable settled out of court.

Prizes on Exhibition.

On exhibition in the store window of Messrs. T. A. McNab & Co., Water Street, is a splendid display of valuable prizes to be competed for at the Highland Games, which takes place at St. George's Field on Wednesday next. The trophies offered are something out of the ordinary, and will no doubt be greatly prized and made good use of by the lucky winners.

Marauder Around.

Last night a vagrant or maybe burglar attempted to gain entrance to a house on Waterfordbridge Road owned by Reddy's estate, by smashing one of the windows. The noise of falling glass arousing nearby residents the marauder beat a hasty retreat. A description of the man has been given the police and an arrest will probably follow.
