LODGED IN JAIL ON CHARGE OF MURDERING GUS NINHAM

John McArthur, of Westminster, Arrested.

REMANDED TILL MONDAY NEXT

Prisoner Made No Effort to Evade Officers—Prior Murder in Ninham Family.

John McArthur, a well-known young resident of Westminster township, was arrested last night on the charge of murdering Augustus Ninham, the Oneida Indian, who died on Saturday night near Sharkey's Hotel, on the Pipe Line road. The arrest took place at McArthur's home, on the Wharncliffe road, a short distance south of the city limits. McArthur submitted quietly to arrest. He made no statement to the officers.

As reported in yesterday's Advertiser, High Constable McLoud located John Charles on a farm at Gleanworth, and brought him to Crown Attorney Magee's office, where Charles told his version of the occurrence on Saturday night, when he and Ninham were chased by a couple of white men, and Ninham received his injuries at their hands. It is understood that the charges that last night's arrest followed. Charles will appear at the inquest on Friday night and tell his story.

Upon the crown authorities deciding to lay a charge of murder against McArthur, a warrant was at once issued.

pany were placing the union label on their brooms.

The Labor Day committee's report, which showed living up to the program in the arrangements being made for the celebration, was accepted.

NEVER TOO OLD

Years No Barrier to a Perfect Cure of Any Disease.

Plattsville, Ont., June 23rd.—(Special).—Mr. Thomas Lake, an aged gentleman of this village, was convinced that he was too old to hope for a perfect cure of a disease of the kidneys, which made his back so sore that he could hardly sit up.

However, he decided that he would try a treatment of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and he purchased one box.

Before this first box was finished the pain was entirely gone, and he was a well man.

His general health is better than it has been for years, and he says: "I thank God for Dodd's Kidney Pills."

SOUTH LONDON GARDEN PARTY.

The members of Westminster Guild of Knox Church, South London, with their friends, enjoyed a delightful garden party last night on the grounds of Mr. A. M. McEvoy, Secher street.

MASON—BOWMAN

Marriage of Miss Georgina Bowman and Mr. Alex. Mason.

One of the prettiest of June weddings took place at the residence of Mr. George Bowman, Burwell street, yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, when his eldest daughter, Georgina, was happily wedded to Mr. W. Alex. Mason, by the Rev. J. S. Hamilton, of the Congregational Church. The bride, daintily groomed in white organdie, with white silk moure and white roses, entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Isabel Pink.

Miss Lillian Bowman, sister of the bride, groomed in white organdie, with pink chiffon trimmings and carrying pink roses attended the bride, while Mr. and Mrs. Mason will be at home to friends at 107 Colborne street after July 15.

The many useful and pretty gifts testified to the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Mason are held by their friends. The groom's present to the bride was a solid gold watch and to the bridesmaid a gold ring.

Following him, escorted by his friends, were the bridesmaids, Misses Margaret, Cecelia, and Pearl Spencer.
