naking travel very difficult. There was a strong demand for hay oday, but comparatively little offered. One load sold for $16, and some of poorer quality for a some-what lower figure. It is expected that here will be a very strong demand omorrow, as there are a large number of purchasers anxiously waiting to get their supply, and the amounts offered in the past few days have not nearly oats also were somewhat-scarce to-day, but despite that fact were, if any thing, somewhat easier in price. $1 25 to $1 27 was the ruling price for fullsized loads, though some few bag lots sold at a slightly higher figure. Other than hay and oats there was aothing offered on the morning's mar-

Dealers have ceased speculating as to the cause or causes of the steadily rising prices, and now unhesitatingly attribute existing market prices to an actual scarcity of cattle in the country. That the shortage cattle in the country. That the shortage is felt, on both sides of the national boundary line is shown by this fact, that big Chicago packing house buyers here are picking up all our heaviest cattle for their export requirements, reserving their own home supplies as much as pos-sible for home consumption. Local butch-er buyers, therefore, and themselves competing with the export buyers for the same class of cattle as were formerly exclusively available for the local trade. Mr. John Dunkin, of 219 Wortley honor of Miss Maude Law, of Harriets-road, has just received some letters and cards from his daughter, the late a trin around the city the party were Mrs. J. L. Stewart, who died when within five days journey of Chen Tu, the scene of her missionary labors. The first letter, dated Dec. 5, tells of their trip from Shanghai to Han Kow, where the party with which Mr. and Mrs. Stewart were travelling took house boat for Ichang on the Yang Tse WANT INSTITUTIONS River. The letter is full of interesting little intimate details of the .journey among the incidents mentioned being a visit to the bank to draw 1.400 taels for the expenses of the journey. This was all delivered in silver and weighed 30 pounds. The letter spoke of a slight illness that left Mrs. Stewart very weak, but that did not seem to f at all a serious nature. Letters dated Dec. 9, and 21, tell of the life in Black Lake, com 23 \(\frac{7}{3} \) \(\frac{7} the house boat, and of the relief of the cosy life on the boats after the rush of the preceding months. A final letter from Mr. Stewart dated Kuei Fu terment of Consumptives met the Jan. 15, told of the opening of the Premier this morning and presented Christmas boxes on the house boat, petitions from city and county counand of the delight of the Christmas celebration even in the foreign land. The letter closes with the statement tutions for the care of indigent conthat Mrs. Stewart is quite well, and sumptives. The petitions were from there seems to have been no premonition of her untimely death.

New York, Feb. 23.—Harrison Higbee and Leslie A. Lord, two young Yale graduates and socially prominent in North Jersey, were wantonly shot down and four young college men of making remarks about women. Lord was going to manded at the police court this morn-reply, but Higbee told him to keep quiet. "Don't you tell me to keep quiet," yelled the negro, as he leaped to his feet and drew a revolver. "I'll quiet you," and he opened fire on the four young men. The first bullet went through Lord's stom-ach, and he dropped to the floor. The second plowed into Higbee's chest, and then Cale Young leaped for the pegge then Gaie Young leaped for the negro. But he continued shooting, the shots causing a panic in the car, and passenthe Municipal Association for the Betgers stampeded for the doors or hid un-der seats. Stuck to His Man.

Gale Young went down under a blow on the head but Roger held on to the man, who emptied his pistol and who was so powerful that he dragged Roger Young with him to the platform. Young held on, however, and when the negroleaped from the train while it was making twenty miles an hour, Roger Young went with him. In striking the embankment Young's grip on the negro was broken and the desperado disappeared in the darkness. His companions also leaped from the train and got away.

Witness in His Own Behalf in Action Against Globe Editor. [Special to The Advertiser.] [Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Feb. 23. — The examination in chief of Hon. George E. Foster in connection with his suit against Dr. Macdonald, editor of the Globe, was continued this morning. Mr. Foster made a good witness on his own behalf. He answered questions clearly, and in detail. He laid considerable emphasis on the fact that he was not a member of the Independent Order of Foresters, and therefore had a right to borrow from that organization, if he could, and also that the Union Trust $3,900 or more, although the greater and in any other way to borrow money portion of the stock and fixtures on from the Foresters.
