HEAVY SELLING MOVE

Motors, Steels and Accessories Were Under Greatest Pressure.

By STUART P. WEST.

Special to The Advertiser.

New York, Wall Street, Oct. 9.—Durling the early part of the session today and the stock exchange the selling movement which had developed Monday afternoon continued. Then it was thecked, as it had been last week, by tresh buying in the railway list. Up to this morning the best opinion in Amer. Lo inceked, as it had been last week, by leash buying in the railway list. Up to this morning the best opinion in Wall street had been rather skeptical bout the Southern Railway's directors oling anything regarding their common vividend at the meeting Thursday. But it was understood that the stockholders it that meeting in Richmond today were exerting strong pressure upon the board take up the dividend question. When this became known, buying orders respectively in the rest of the market.

The Southern Railway and the remark in this stock along with that in Reading had a steadying effect upon the area of the market.

The Southern Railway president, addressing the shareholders' meeting, said that the road was handling more traffic than ever before, and that the market increase in this year's earnings had occurred in spite of a reduction in reight rates.

During the intervals when the market increase in this year's earnings had occurred in spite of a reduction in reight rates.

During the intervals when the market increase in this year's earnings and he steels. At 25, American Bosch Magneto sold at the lowest it has ever reached. The abrupt drop over four points appeared to be due to an accumulation of small selling orders in a market which was bare of all near hids. During the speculative enthusiasm last February and March, there was a lot of talk about the stock going on a dividend basis, and on the strength of this it was bid up to 60. This month showed earnings of $6 for the full year. The seasonal reaction in the motor industry has reduced this estimate considerably and has made dividends quite out of the question, but the more immediate practical reason for the weak. CANADIAN DOLLAR FIRM ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE

Associated Press Despatch. New York, Oct. 8.—The Canadian dollar was worth 39 cents in New York today for the first time since Jan. 28. In the local exchange martet Canadian money was quoted at one per cent discount, marking a de-cline of one per cent in one week line of one per cent in one week. Canadian banking men here attribute Canadian banking men here attribute the firm tone of Canadian exchange brincipally to the arrangement of financing for the big fall movement of Canadian wheat. Exchange futures to take care of transference of funds to be received in payment for Canada's wheat during the next two months are being purchased freely, and this has tended to bring down the rate rapidly. Another factor afthe rate rapidly. Another factor affecting the market was the successful financing of the Canadian government's $200,000,000 loan. This has had a sentimental effect on the marhas served to aid in the movement The "high" lownward movement r was recorded on July 10, e Capadian dollar was quoted at 2 7-8 per cent discount.

WILL EXTEND PRINCIPLES

OF WORLD BROTHERHOOD

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, Oct. 9.-Plans for the exension of the principles of world

protherhood throughout the Dominon of Canada and generally throughout the world were discussed this morning at the opening sessions of the congress of the Canadian branch of the world brotherhood federation.

Rev. Dr. T. Albert Moore, vice-president of the world federation presided

dent of the world federation presided.

An address of "The World Vision," was given by William Ward of London, England, international president, while J. A. Stewart detailed the progress of the brotherhood movement in Canada. Rev. Dr. Samuel Z. Batten of Philadelphia spoke on international aspects of the movement with special application to provision for the proper growth and development of child life.

This afternoon George H. Lees, velopment of child life.

This afternoon George H. Lees, former mayor of Hamilton, Ont., presided. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Worth M. Tippy of New York city, Hon. E. C. Drury, and Hon. N. W. Rowell. Tonight under the chairmanship of T. B. Macauley of Montreal, who was introduced this morning as the "father of brotherhood in Canada," the delegates will hear addresses by Rabbi Brickner and Rev. Wardle Stafford.
