

AETER DOCTOR'S FAILED

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Midgie Station, N. B.—One can hardly believe this as it is not natural, but it was my case. For ten months I suffered from suppression. I had different doctors, tried different medicines, but none helped me. My friends told me I would go into a decline. One day a lady friend told me what your medicine had done for her, so I wrote you for advice and received your reply with pleasure. I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and at the second bottle showed improvement. Now I am regular and never was so well in my life, thanks to Mrs. Pinkham's medicine. Please publish my letter for the benefit of others.—Mrs. JOSIAH W. HICKS, Midgie Station, N. B.

Indian Head, Sask.—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is indeed a boon to women who suffer from female ills. My health is better now than it has been in my five years of married life and I thank you for the good your advice and medicine have done me. I had spent hundreds of dollars on doctors without receiving any benefit.—Mrs. FRANK COOPER, Box 448, Indian Head, Saskatchewan. The most successful remedy in this country for the cure of all forms of female complaints is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

The real business of life is the making of a happy home. When you come to sift the whole chaff of existence, everything goes to wind but the happiness we have had at home.

Elections may come and elections may go, but the process of progress goes on forever. The heat of conflict, the fervor of debate, the massing of will and power, are all subservient and superficial when compared to the steady, daily, quiet operation of the forces that make a nation strong and civilized.

The young men whose pockets are filled with cigarette wrappers, moustache combs, finger nail cleaners, miniature curling irons, looking glasses, chewing gum, etc., and who have their mother crease their pants every day, are not the ones to make promising husbands. The pockets of those who are helping to make the country bloom, and causing two blades of grass to grow where only one grew before, will be found filled with barbed wire staples and different sizes of nails and screws. They are the boys the girls had better get after.

The skies will soon be found full of airships. The papers have almost as much airship news as baseball news. But what of it? Of course the new fact that man can voyage through the air is somewhat of an accomplishment, but what will be ultimate benefit? So far we can only see the airship as adding new horrors to war or as a rich man's toy. Will it ever be a great factor in general transportation? So great a scientist as the late astronomer, Simon Newcombe, wrote, some time before his death, a demonstration that the possibilities of aerial transportation were very limited. The new invention is not to take the place, he thought, of the ship and the railway train. Still, as great men in their way as Newcombe saw little possibility of the use of steam and electricity. They thought those discoveries were only useful to play with. When we hear anyone ask what's the use of any new invention, however, we would do well to remember Ben Franklin's reply to someone who asked him what would be the use of his electrical discovery with his kite. He simply asked his querist: "What's the use of a new baby?" There are limitless possibilities in almost any new thing, just as any new baby may be a Shakespeare, a Washington, a Lincoln, or a Darwin.

No Substitute for Newspaper Advertising.

Advertising pays if the man who has something to sell so regulates his advertisement as to convince the people that it is worth buying.

All the substitutes for newspaper advertising can be easily avoided or disregarded by the people the advertiser tries hardest to attract, the man or woman that can afford to buy.

They do not stand gaping at bill boards and they do not bother with circulars in the mail because they are too busy, but their old friend, the newspaper, is taken into inmost privacy of the family. It is discussed at the breakfast table and at supper, it is read at leisure in the evening, and its pages are scrutinized with the interest born of long habit and discriminating taste.

An advertisement in the Guide-Advocate goes into the family circle and cannot be excluded. It is welcomed because it is a part of something else and it goes there at the very time when the occasional domestic-economical council takes place. There is no substitute for the newspaper advertising.

The Golden Opportunity.

Among the persons who have recently made provision for old age when it comes are two sisters aged respectively 33 and 34 years. They have purchased from the Canadian Government a Last Survivor Annuity, that is an Annuity which will give them together an income of $600 a year so long as they both live, and to be continued to the survivor so long as she lives. The cost of this Annuity, $3,643.75, had been invested at 5% and had brought in less than $185.00 annually, with the difficulty and annoyance of reinvestment. The Annuity becomes payable when the younger sister attains the age of 55, and should both die before that time the purchase money will be refunded to their heirs with 3% compound interest. Each is now earning her own living, and the sum paid is the fruit of their labors for a number of years. They were thus able to appreciate their splendid opportunity. A card of enquiry addressed to the Superintendent of Canadian Government Annuities, Ottawa, will secure for you any information you desire on the subject.

A Valuable Apple Tree.

Thirty thousand dollars was the sum recently offered an eastern Washington nursery company for an apple tree located near Lake Chelan. The proffer was made by a syndicate which desired to propagate the tree. It was turned down by the nursery company, which will develop the fruit itself.

The tree is twenty years old and is called the Chelan. The fruit is golden yellow and is said to be different from that of any other apple grown in Washington. It is also said to possess exceptional keeping qualities, a box having been kept in storage in Spokane for two years without any marked deterioration. Twenty years ago, the story runs, an Indian planted a handful of apple seeds, three of which grew. The fruit of only one of the trees was good for anything. The tree is now of great size and a profitable bearer. Last year at the national apple show at Spokane fruit from this tree took first prize for new varieties of apples.

GREAT MEDICINE.—Toni, one of the pioneers of French Canada, lost a hand and wore an iron hook as a substitute. He was in the habit of boxing the ears of refractory Indians with this iron hand, and they have remarked that it was "great medicine." Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is great medicine; it takes hold of pain with an iron hand and knocks it out of the system.

Often a housekeeper has trouble in trying to take cakes out of tins in which they have been baked. A sure way out of the trouble is to turn the pan upside down and lay on the bottom of it a cloth wrung out in water. After about five minutes the cake can be removed without crumbling to pieces.

The famous rescuing St. Bernard dogs have now a rival in the telephone. The monks of St. Bernard have fitted the refuge huts in the most perilous spots in the Alps with telephones, which will enable travellers in distress to ring for assistance.

Help your children to grow strong and robust by counteracting anything that causes ill-health. One great cause of disease in children is worms. Remove them with Mother Graves Worm Expeller. It never fails.

Hailstorms in France cause an estimated annual loss to farmers of $30,000,000. A Bothwell man had an exhibition a cauliflower that weighed 12½ pounds.

In five minutes I was well and my stomach derangements disappeared entirely."
