

WOMAN'S NERVES MADE STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Winona, Minn.—"I suffered for more than a year from nervousness, and was so bad I could not rest at night—would lie awake and get so nervous I would have to get up and walk around and in the morning would be all tired out. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and thought I would try it. My nervousness soon left me. I sleep well and feel fine in the morning and able to do my work. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to make weak nerves strong."—Mrs. ALBERT SULTZ, 603 Olmstead St., Winona, Minn.

How often do we hear the expression among women, "I am so nervous, I cannot sleep," or "it seems as though I should fly." Such women should profit by Mrs. Sultz's experience and give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

New Church Maybe?

From the London Mail. "It's a trench padre' for me in the future. He's the only 'parson' I shall have the patience to listen to!" said corporal of my regiment the other day.

His attitude towards ministers of religion in general may be unfair, but it represents the opinion of the majority of men at the front. There is but one standard by which all men are gauged out here. "Is he taking the same risk? Is he making a similar sacrifice?" we ask. The zealous, hard-working pastor of military age who is convinced that his duty lies in his own district, and that he is doing better work there than he could do in the trenches, may have a clear conscience, but he will undoubtedly have great difficulty in persuading the average soldier that his motives are pure.

The "trench padre," we admit, is a bird of another feather. Some of us fight shy of him; a few ridicule him; many do not understand him. But the worst man among us has a sort of sneaking respect for him. Here lies the padre's hope for future service. In this war he has by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrah deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrah deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrah, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Hall's Catarrah Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surface of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrah Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrah Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo O.

Interesting Prophecy of 14th Century Foretelling the World War

An interesting prophecy made in the sixteenth century predicts war of the kaiser's hosts. An obscure monk wrote that the men of Luther's land would rise to slay and burn under the leadership of the Anti-Christ.

Some time ago there was published in the columns of the London Evening Standard a part of a strange prophecy supposed to have come from the pen of a certain Brother Johannes, who lived in the sixteenth century, in which the present war is predicted and the result foretold. The prophecy created such an impression that many readers of the Standard were anxious to know more about its author, and the paper accordingly published what little was known about the history of the prophecy.

Below is given an extract from the full text of the prophecy as well as some information about the original Latin writing. In deciphering that, France is represented by a Cock; England by a Leopard; Russia by a White Eagle; Germany by a Black Eagle, and Austria by the "other Eagle," while the Lamb stands for Justice, Mercy and Truth.

TEXT OF PROPHECY

Following is the full text of the prophecy, the first seven paragraphs now being included for the first time:

- 1. Several times has one seemed to recognize him, because all the slayers of the Lamb resemble each other and all the wicked are the purcurors of the Wicked One.
2. The veritable anti-Christ will be one of the monarchs of his time, a son of Luther; he will invoke God and call himself His messenger.
3. The prince of his will swear by the Bible; he will call himself the arm of the Most High, chastening corrupted people.
4. He will only have one arm, but his innumerable armies, who will take as their motto "God be with us," will seem like infernal legions.
5. For a long while he will act by ruse and treason; his spies will spread over all the earth, and he will be the master of the secrets of those in power.
6. He will have theologians in his pay to certify and prove his celestial mission.
7. A war will furnish him with the reason for lifting the mask. It will not be one which he will make against the French monarch, but another which will be easily recognized by the fact that within two weeks' time it will have become universal.
8. It will call to arms all Christians, all mohamitans, and even other very distant people. Armies will be formed in the four parts of the world.
9. For men's minds will be opened by angels and in the third week they will understand that this is the anti-Christ and that they will all become slaves if they do not trample down this conquering one.

ACT THOSE OF A NERO.

- 10. The anti-Christ will be recognizable by several marks; he will chiefly masst-acre priests, monks, women, children and old people. He will show no mercy; he will pass along holding a torch like the barbarians, but invoking the name of Christ.
11. His fake words will resemble those of Christians, but his acts will be those of Nero and the Roman persecutors; there will be an eagle in his coat-of-arms, and there will be one in that of his confederate, the other wicked monarch.
12. But this one is a Christian and he will die cursed by the Pope Benedictus, who will be elected at the beginning of the reign of the anti-Christ.
13. Priests and monks will no longer be seen confessing and absolving the combatants because for the first time priests and monks will fight with the other citizens and also because Pope Benedictus having cursed the anti-Christ, it will be proclaimed that all those who wage war against him will be in a state of grace and should they die, will like martyrs, go straight to heaven.
14. The peoples "Bull" proclaiming these things will make a great sensation, and will cause the death of the monarch the anti-Christ ally.
15. In order to conquer the anti-Christ more men must be killed than Rome has ever held. It will require an effort from all lands, for the Cock, the Leopard, and the White Eagle would not suffice to overcome the Black Eagle if they were not helped by the prayers and devotion of the whole human race.

acquired knowledge born of experience. He has, perhaps, "gone over the top," not only of the parapet, but also of the average soldier's distaste for professional pietists, and he has won through.

Already the men at the front are discussing the formation of a new church, carried on by former padres and Christian men who have experienced the fellowship of suffering and the shadow of death. It may, or may not, boast a paid ministry. But it will cater for spiritual needs; not for intellectual creeds. Its gospel will be that of "Peace on earth; good will towards men." The only "istu"

HUMANITY'S PERIL

16. Never before has humanity been in such peril, for the triumph of the anti-Christ would be that of the demon, in whom he is incarcerated.

17. For it has been said that twenty centuries after the incarnation of the world, the beast in his turn would be incarcerated and would threaten the earth with as many evils as the Divine Incarnation had brought it graces.

18. Near the year 2000 the anti-Christ will appear, his army will surpass in numbers anything heretofore imagined; there will be Christians among his hordes and amongst the defenders of the Lamb there will be Mohammedans and savage tribes.

19. For the first time the Lamb will be entirely red; in the whole of the Christian world there will not be a space that will not be red, and the heavens, the earth, the water, and even the air will be red, for blood will flow in the sphere of the four elements at the same time.

20. The Black Eagle will surprise the Cock; it will throw itself upon the Cock which will lose many of its feathers, but will strike heroically with its spurs. It would soon be annihilated were it not for the help of the Leopard and its claws.

21. The Black Eagle, which will come from the land of Luther, will surprise the Cock from another side and will invade one-half of the land of the Cock.

22. The White Eagle, which will come from the North, will surprise the Black Eagle and the other eagle and will completely invade the land of the anti-Christ from one end to the other.

23. The Black Eagle will be forced to leave the Cock to fight the White Eagle, and the Cock will pursue the Black Eagle into the land of the anti-Christ to help the White Eagle.

BIG BATTLES ABROAD

24. The battles waged until then will be small in comparison to those that will take place in the land of Luther, because the seven eagles will at the same time pour fire from their burners on the impious land (image taken from the Apocalypse) which means that the Lamb will order the extermination of the anti-Christ race.

25. When the Beast sees he is lost he will become furious; during months the beak of the white Eagle the claws of the Leopard and the spurs of the Cock must harass him.

26. Rivers will be crossed over on a bridge of "dead" bodies which in some places will change the course of the waters. Only great noblemen, superior officers and princes will receive burial, for to the carnage caused by firearms will be added those who perished by famine and plague.

27. The anti-Christ will several times ask for peace, but the seven angels who precede the three animals, defenders of the Lamb, have declared that victory shall only be accorded on the condition that the anti-Christ be crushed, like straw on the threshing floor.

28. Executors of the Lamb's justice, their three animals, cannot stop fighting as long as any soldiers remain to the anti-Christ.

29. The reason the sentence of the Lamb is so implacable is that the anti-Christ has pretended to be a Christian and to be acting in His name, so that if he did not perish, the fruit of the Redemption would be lost and the gates of Hell would prevail against the Saviour.

WILL LOSE HIS CROWN?

30. It will be seen that it is not a human combat which will be waged before the anti-Christ forges his arms. The three animals, defenders of the Lamb, will exterminate the anti-Christ's last army; but the battle field will become as an altar of sacrifice, larger than the greatest of cities and the corpses will have changed its shape by raising it in chains of moulds.

31. The anti-Christ will lose his crown and will die denuded of it. His empire will be divided into twenty-two states, but none will have either royal house, an army or vessels.

32. The White Eagle by Michael's orders, will drive the crescent from Europe, where only Christians will remain; it will occupy Constantinople.

33. Then an era of peace and prosperity will commence for all the universe, and there will be no more war, each nation being governed according to its wish, and living in justice.

34. There will be no more Lutherans or Schismatics. The Lamb will reign and the joys of humanity will commence. Happy they who escaping from the perils of this prodigious time can taste of its fruit; it will be the reign of the Eternal Spirit, and the sanctification of humanity, only to be achieved by the defeat of the anti-Christ.

it will tolerate will be patriotism. And its head will be One who has suffered and bled as we suffer and bleed, for the cause of humanity. This is but a prophesy; but the idea has taken root and is being well watered. And "after the dream comes the business."

NOTICE TO SOLDIERS ON HARVEST LEAVE.

Attention is directed to a recent announcement published in the Press by the Military Service Branch, Department of Justice, regarding extensions to be granted to men EXEMPTED AS FARMERS.

It is pointed out that this DOES NOT IN ANY WAY AFFECT MEN WHO HAVE BEEN ORDERED BY THE REGISTRAR TO REPORT TO Depot Battalions and who have thereafter received leave of absence from the Military Authorities.

Once a man has been ordered to report for duty by the Registrar he leaves the jurisdiction of the Registrar and comes under that of the Department of Militia and Defence, and is to be considered as a soldier. This applies to men of the 20 to 22 Class who have been ordered to report by the Registrar in virtue of the cancellation of exemptions by Order-in-Council of the 20th April last, as well as to those ordered to report in the usual way on refusal of claim for exemption, or on expiration of exemption granted.

All men, accordingly, who have been ordered to report, and are therefore SOLDIERS, and who have subsequently been granted harvest leave by the military authorities, MUST, NOTWITHSTANDING THE NOTICE ABOVE REFERRED TO, REPORT ON THE EXPIRATION OF THAT LEAVE, unless they are notified to the contrary by their Commanding Officer or by general notice published by the Department of Militia and Defence.

NOTICE Military Service Act, 1917. EMPLOYMENT OF MEN IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

The following Regulations, recently approved by the Governor General in Council, impose strict obligations upon every employer TO ASSURE HIMSELF THAT EACH OF HIS EMPLOYEES OF MILITARY AGE AND DESCRIPTION IS IN POSSESSION OF DOCUMENTS PROVING THAT HE IS NOT IN ANY WAY IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

An employer who is charged with having a defaulter in his employ must be able to prove THAT THE MILITARY SERVICE PAPERS ISSUED BY THE REGISTRAR OR MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO THE EMPLOYEE IN QUESTION WERE PRODUCED FOR HIS INSPECTION at the time when the employee was taken into his employment, and that it was reasonably established to his satisfaction that the man was not in default under the Military Service Act. It should be clearly understood that the Canadian Registration Certificates given on June 22, 1918, at the time of general registration, in no way define the status of a man under the Military Service Act.

REGULATIONS.

"106. Every person who employs or retains in his service any man who has deserted or is absent without leave from the Canadian Expeditionary Force, or who is in default in the performance of any obligation or requirement for reporting or for military service, imposed upon him by the Act or Regulations, or any proclamation thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars, and of not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine, unless such person prove that he made due inquiry and that THE MILITARY SERVICE PAPERS ISSUED BY THE REGISTRAR OR THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO THE MAN SO EMPLOYED OR RETAINED IN HIS SERVICE WERE PRODUCED FOR HIS INSPECTION, and that it was reasonably established to his satisfaction by such inquiry and papers that the man was not a deserter or absent from the force without leave, or in default in respect of any of the obligations or requirements aforesaid."

"106A. Every person who HARBOURS OR CONCEALS OR IN ANY WAY ASSISTS ANY MAN WHO IS A DESERTER OR ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE FROM THE CANADIAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, or who is in default in the performance of any obligation or requirement for reporting or for military service imposed upon him by the Act or Regulations, or any proclamation thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence punishable upon summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars and of not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine, unless such person prove that he was not aware and had no reasonable ground to suspect that the man so harboured, concealed, or assisted was a deserter or absent from the forces without leave or in default in respect of any of the obligations or requirements aforesaid."
