Through the Looking Glass

By EVELYN NESBIT

When a man offers you the world with a fence around it, there may be a string tied to it. Watch out for the string.
It is foolish for a young girl to marry a man for the things he promises to give her after the knot is tied. So easy is the business of making promises that all young swains are prone to paint the future in brilliant colors. And the young girl nibbles and bites. Then she regrets it—when it is too late.

Don't marry in the hope that you may ride in a golden automobile, or that you may have ice cream for dessert every day. Those are not the things that count. Don't marry for the sake of living in a hubby-to-be's fine five-story house, or for the sake of becoming part owner in his prosperous business. Watch out for the string.
Hubby-to-be may offer you his fine house as a home before you are married, but afterward he may expect you to run it for him as a boarding house. Hubby-to-be may offer you before you are married a partnership in his fine, prosperous business, but afterward he may expect you to sink your precious savings into it and lose them all.

Watch out for the string when you marry a man for the material good you may expect to get out of the match. If you have your eyes open beforehand you may learn that marriage founded on dollars and cents is a delusion and a snare. The woman who marries for the sake of having the world with a fence around it generally loses in the end.

The Gay Floral Toque.
Once again we have floral toques in our midst. This is the best of good news, for the floral toque in early spring, is a thing of beauty and a real joy to eyes wearied by the sight of gray, rather dreary, days and evenings. And then the floral toque is almost universally becoming. The leading milliners in Paris are showing these toques in several different forms; but personally I award the palm for beauty to the close-fitting Russian turban shape which I have sketched.

On a young and pretty girl, or woman, this is an ideal toque for early spring wear. It may be covered with any small flat flower, but roses, violets, hyacinths or scarlet japonica blossoms are perhaps the best of all. The model was covered with dull pink Banksia roses, and very lovely it was. Quite plain and simple, but full of rich and varied color, for the little roses were shaded—here and there dark.

This style of toque must be pressed close down on the head so that the hair at the back is almost covered. No fringe shows on the forehead, but coquettish curls are allowed to straggle forward over the ears. A toque of this kind made entirely of dark purple violets would be lovely; or of Parma violets mixed with dull blue hyacinths; or again with moss roses and soft green rose leaves.

For Correct Combination.
The correct thing to combine with such a toque as this is a large square throw-over veil made of taupe gray Russian net, with the border embroidered in silver threads. These taupe-colored veils are extremely becoming to bright complexions. They look remarkably smart when worn with an all-black hat or toque.

Jet and Velvet Hats for Late Winter.
For late winter wear there are some very attractive little hats of jet and velvet. The jet sequins are spangled all over with velvet, which is then coated into a becoming little hat with a puffed crown and a narrow brim. Some of these hats are cut with mitered crown, like a bishop's cap.

VERY NEAT DUVETYN COAT

Simplicity in lines is the keynote of this attractive brown duvetyne coat. Practically the only deviation is found in the four little box plaits. There are self-piped button holes and fancy black and green buttons to match.

Nature and the Indian

The Indian never liked work but he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible so that she could do the work and let him hunt, therefore he dug up some root for her, for that was their great remedy for female weakness.

Dr. Pierce uses the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription" skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective.
Women who are worn out, who suffer from pain at regular or irregular intervals, who are nervous or dizzy at times, should take that reliable, temperance, herbal tonic which a doctor in active practice prescribed many years ago. Now sold by druggists, in tablets and liquid, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

WOODROCK, Ont.—"I cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Pierce's Medicines. I had nervous prostration and was completely 'down and out.' I was so bad the doctors considered mine a hopeless case. I was much discouraged and was ready to give up when I began taking the 'Favorite Prescription' and the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' These medicines put me on my feet again and gave me the only real relief. Being a nurse I have recommended Dr. Pierce's Medicines to many, especially the 'Favorite Prescription.' I know of many a young mother to whom I have recommended 'Favorite Prescription' that has been wonderfully helped."

"I am glad to lend my name in connection with Dr. Pierce's Medicines, knowing how good they are."—Miss A. L. MILLER, 616 John Street.

ELECTRIC TIME SAVER WASHER

THIS IS THE SAFE WAY TO DO YOUR WASHING

Many housewives prefer to keep the washing in the home. This is the safe and sanitary way. Clothes sent out to be washed are mixed with everybody's, and come in contact with contaminated linen. Also by keeping the washing in the home you can supervise it closely and often prevent the ruin of some delicate garment. Clothes last much longer when washed in the home.

With a Time Saver Electric Washer you can easily get all the washing done in your own home. It saves three whole hours on wash day and makes the day an easy one. Both washer and wringer are driven by electric power and run for 2c. an hour. It is moderate in price. It pays back its cost in a year in the saving of laundry bills or washer woman's wages. We have a machine in the store for you. Let us demonstrate it in your home. Phone or call.
