

Western Honeymoon. — The Last Embrace. — Capote Blanc.
 — Boat Encampment. — A bothered Steed. — Forest Swept away. — The Flooded Athabasca. — Shoes long as Yourself.
 — Crossing Jasper's Lake. — In for it everyway. — Rising of the River. — Starving the Dogs. — Waiting for a Frost-Bridge. — Too Thin to be Eaten. — Fort Assiniboine. — Pleasure after Pain - - - - - Page 317

CHAP. XXII.

An easy Time. — Clever Rabbit-snare. — Fort Edmonton. — Buffalo Ice-pits. — The Horse and its Keeper. — A tame Battue. — Saving the Credit of the Herd. — Harnessing the Dogs. — My Big Head. — Sober Mirth. — Christmas-day in the Wilds. — Our Fare. — The Feast and the Dance. —
 "One that looks at the Stars." — Fighting to the Death. —
 The better part of Valour. — Making a Calf. — An affectionate Bull. — The Aurora Borealis - - - - - 363

CHAP. XXIII.

A pleasant Wedding. — Sledges and Carioles. — Useful but Dangerous Dogs. — The Hunter's Bravado. — Journey through the Snow. — An unwilling Chase. — A Tumble in a Drift. — Indian Etiquette. — The Spotted Leg. — The Indian in Heaven. — Battle of the Dogs. — Arrival at Fort Pitt. —
 The Medicine Pipe-stem and its Carrier. — Digging up the Hatchet. — Crying for War. — Invoking the Great Spirit. —
 Preparing for the March. — Eating a Warrior's Heart 385

CHAP. XXIV.

Departure from Edmonton. — Taming a Wild Calf. — A Raft of Ice. — Rocky Mountain Fort. — Stuffing a Dead Foe. —
 A Token of Friendship. — A Lecture on Lying. — Honest
 Thieves. — "I can't get out." — Start for Norway House. —
 Drowned Buffaloes. — Meeting a War Party. — Smoking