BREAKFAST.

By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of our selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage, which saves us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us, ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape any fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame.—San Francisco Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in packets by Grocers, labelled thus:

Harper's Weekly
ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Weekly has now, for more than twenty years, maintained its position as the leading illustrated weekly newspaper in America. With a constant increase of literary and artistic resources, it is able to offer for the ensuing year attractions unequalled by any previous volume, containing two capital illustrated serial stories, one by Mr. Thomas Hardy, among the foremost of living writers of fiction, and the other by Mr. Walter Besant, one of the most rapidly rising of English novelists; graphic illustrations of unusual interest to readers in all sections of the country; entertaining short stories, mostly illustrated, by the best writers, and important papers by high authorities on the chief topics of the day.

Every one who desires a trustworthy political guide, an entertaining and instructive family journal, entirely free from objectionable features in either letterpress or illustrations, should subscribe to Harper's Weekly.

Harper's Magazine!
ILLUSTRATED.

The December Number will begin the Seventy-second Volume of Harper's Magazine, Miss Woolson's novel, "East Angles," and Mr. Howells' "Indian Summer"—holding the foremost place in serial fiction—will run through several numbers, and will be followed by serial stories from R. D. Blackmore and Mrs. U. M. Craik. A new editorial department, discussing topics suggested by the current literature of America and Europe, will be contributed by W. D. Howells, beginning with the January Number. The great literary event of the year will be the publication of a series of papers—taking the shape of a story, and depicting characteristic features of American society as seen at our leading pleasure resorts—written by Charles Dudley Warner, and illustrated by C. S. Reinhart. The Magazine will give especial attention to American subjects, treated by the best American writers; and illustrated by leading American artists.
