

LINENS!

Linen fabrics were made long before the first pages of authentic history were written.

Linen has been used by those same persons for over three thousand years without being worn out.

Ireland at present is the great seat of manufactures in Linen, as the following table will illustrate:—

CHRISTIAN SPIRIT OF ORANGEMEN.

To the Editor of the "True Witness."

Montreal, 1877.

Mr. Editor,—Much is said in a certain press about the Christian spirit of the Orangemen of Montreal, and about the dignified attitude which the "brethren," or those connected with them, kept on the 12th of July last. I am inclined to think, that it is not gospel truth. On that ever sad day, about nine in the morning, as I was coming down Bleury street, I met two women—ladies, as the "only religious Daily" would call them—wearing Orange ribbons around their neck. I was not paying any attention to them, when one of the ladies addressed me saying, as she pointed her ribbon: "look at this, look at this."

I am not aware that it is the fashion among ladies to point out to gentlemen, and still less to priests, whatever they may happen to wear around their neck.

That this was done for an insult, there is not the shadow of a doubt.

A PRIEST.

THE ORANGE DELEGATES.

KINGSTON, July, 23rd, 1877.

To the Editor of the True Witness.

DEAR SIR,—The Orange Delegates from the City of Canada, immortalized themselves in your City, at the burial of poor Hackett. The people of Montreal might be curious to know who those delegates are, and their position in society. Well they are chiefly composed of firebrands and roughs of the purest type.

The hairbrained Tom Robinson, Grand Marshal! so graphically described by the New York Herald's correspondent, during the visit of the Prince of Wales Canada. Few of your readers can be ignorant of his "Don Quixot" exploits, in heading the rabble, to prevent the Prince from landing at Kingston. The history of Ireland in "Penal days" tells us of a certain hell-inspired apostate, who did the work of his Satan master so well in his atrocious persecution of Catholics, that he was nick-named "Tom the Devil," whether his Kingston prototype is one of his offspring or not, I am unable to decide but that he is as badly disposed if he had the opportunity, there is no questioning. The people of Montreal and elsewhere will be curious to know how this fanatic, who is a landing waiter, got permission to leave his duty, and go armed to Montreal. The head of the Customs Dept. or the Collector of Kingston, should explain, or the public will hold him responsible as participant in his lawless proceedings. Some say it was "Bro. Bill" told him to go, and that he would be responsible. To cap the climax, our would be hero, got a threatening letter telling him he was to share the fate of poor Hackett. He ran to the press and had it published—"the old trick over again" Will the Government offer a reward for the author?—They should! I can tell Tom, he is bullet proof, for there is not a Catholic in Kingston (so void of sense) as to waste powder and ball on his dirty carcass, his miserable antics are so well known to the people of Kingston, that they give him "carte blanche" to enjoy his cheap martyrdom.

The question of the day is—who is to blame. The Orangemen at Montreal walk to the tunes of "We will kick the priests and Pope before us"—Croppies lie down &c.—Let us vary it—the St. Patrick's Society at Toronto walk to the tunes of "We will waltz the green and Protestants &c."—"Orangemen lie down" &c.—were such to be the case—what would be the result?—murder?—One law for Catholics and another for Protestants—Our Protestant press are so blinded with bigotry—that they can see no harm or insult to Catholics in saying—"To hell with the Pope"—a like course has ever and always characterized the editorial efforts of our noble Canadian Protestant press—the same press—that would to-morrow clamor for Catholic rights—if then on the other—to-day insult them by its dirty tirades against pope and popery.—It was once well said that "if the devil was in a fellow it would have to show itself sooner or later"—we have had a forcible illustration of this saying during the past few weeks—in the rancorous efforts of those North of Ireland bog-trotters—who have disgraced the staff of our Canadian press—their many productions would do honor to a wild red man in the war path.—

Let the followers of the German usurper overrate his glorious and immortal memory—but Catholics, if you must assert your rights—it must be done with your own right hands. Congratulating you—Mr. Editor—on your manly editorial on the Orange rampage—Believe me, Very sincerely, A WELL WISHER.

THE NATIONAL AND THE ORANGEMEN.

(From Le Nouveau Monde, 21st July.)

The National has not one word of blame or reproach for the Orangemen who played and sang the most insulting airs to Catholics at the funeral on the 16th of July, such for example as "Croppies Lie Down." The National has not one word of blame for the reviling of the same Orangemen, vociferated besides its own office against the civic authorities of Montreal, reviling of which the Herald has spoken but dare not name, so interestedly gross were they. The National has not one word to say against the fanatical harangue which the Minister Dondlet pronounced over the body of young Hackett. The National has not one word of reproach against the provocation given by the Grand Marshal Robinson, who has been heard to say, while returning his sword to the scabbard, "woe be to Montreal if we come here again!" But the same National reserves all its indignation for the Catholics, and particularly for the True Witness and Nouveau Monde. It published this morning an article full of the most cowardly slander against the former, which commences thus:—"In the course of an article in the True Witness, with which we do not exchange, which has been reproduced by the Herald of Thursday, it makes the most virulent appeal to the fanaticism of the Irish Catholics to engage them to fight against the Orangemen with all the means in their power." The article terminates with the following attack on ourselves:—"The same may be said of the Le Nouveau Monde on account of the article which I published the day before yesterday. It is not in insulting Protestants as it has done, nor in naming as hideous the standards the Orangemen carried in their demonstration that it can hope to put an end to the deplorable distinction which signalizes the conflict of Protestant and Catholic. This appeal to fanaticism can produce but one effect, a conflict of religion which we shall have to deplore more than the misfortunes of the fatal week of July, 1877; and where the number of the victims will be greater on the side of the Catholics than on the side of the Protestants." The National does not wish that we should treat of the hideousness of the banners because it would interfere with the harmony between Catholics and Protestants, but it cannot reproach the Orangemen who seek to disturb the peace by playing "Croppies Lie Down." Were we wrong in saying that all its sympathies are with the Orangemen.

The National lies in saying we have insulted the Protestants. We blame those only who have insulted our religion, as we blame Catholics who permit themselves to be insulted with impunity, and who on the contrary like to defend the insulters like the cowards of the National.

CITY ITEMS.

DISCHARGED.—One of the composers has been discharged from the Star because he was a member of the Catholic Union.

DISCHARGED.—Several firms in the city discharged their Catholic workmen who were absent on the Twelfth amongst others Mr. Becket the Printer and Bookbinder on Craig Street. It is presumed that Mr. Becket will also refuse to trade with Catholics.

THE RIOTS.—Booksellers and news dealers can have the pamphlet on Orangemen and the late riots in Montreal by addressing, J. O. Fleming, True Witness Office. The frontes piece will be composed of a drawing "the Orange Lady and the Catholic female."

FORFEITURE.—All day long on the Twelfth the driver of the street car wearing badge 37 had on an orange lily openly and defiantly and was not molested. Those having a hatred towards that innocent emblem of intolerance knew that if any movement were made on the street-cars ladies might be hurt, and therefore refrained, but yet it was not in good taste of the wearer to take advantage of his position.

ARRAIRE.—Sergeant Holbrook of the Water Police arrested three men on Wednesday for the attack on Elliot. Elliot took five minutes to scan their faces and then thought McAllister was the man that shot him (as he was the man who helped him into the cab) and that the other two (Byrnes) had maltreated him. This will teach McAllister to be cautious in acting the good Samaritan in future. Is it likely that if McAllister shot Elliot he would wait to be recognized?

SENSATIONAL OR NOTHING.—The Star is nothing if not sensational, every little accident it multiplies by ten or twenty. Here for instance is an item in its issue of the 16th inst.—BOUNS OVER.—James Morris, accused of having unlawfully carried firearms and firing on Mr. Gray on the first of July inst., has been released at the request of his counsel, Mr. Charles Outmet, upon giving good and reliable bail to keep the peace for six months. The real at all truth is that Mr. Morris did not fire at Mr. Gray, but through sport in the water, and the bullet ricocheted and grazed the latter.

VERDICT.—On Friday afternoon the following verdict was returned by the Coroner's Jury, convened for the purpose of enquiry into the death of the late T. L. Hackett:—"Wherefore, the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do say and declare that upon the 12th day of the month of July, A.D. 1877, some person or persons to us the jurors aforesaid unknown, did, in the City of Montreal in the said District of Montreal, feloniously, willfully and of malice aforethought, kill and murder one Thomas Lett Hackett, of the City of Montreal in the said District of Montreal, gentleman, against the form of the Statute in such cases made and provided, and against the peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, Her Crown and Dignity." Signed,—A. Laberge, file, foreman; John Fraser, W. T. McNiece, A. G. Lord, D. C. Brosseau, Joseph Robert W. W. Halpin, W. M. Dangerfield, E. O. Mathieu, Charles F. Smith, Oct. Giroux, Joseph J. Graves, Joseph Leveille, B. Furniss, Edmund Rothwell. Farel was then discharged. The Coroner gave the public to understand that the enquiry will be continued.

CANADIAN ITEMS.

IRISH CATHOLIC UNION.—The Irish Catholics of Ottawa held a meeting on Saturday night for the purpose of forming a branch of the Catholic Union which all the young Irishmen of the city would join. A copy of the Constitution was ordered to be had from Montreal.

OTTAWA RIVER NAVIGATION COMPANY.—The Ottawa River Navigation Company, after the Pontifical Zouaves affair, ordered that no party flags should in future be allowed to fly on board their boats. Captain Simmond in direct contravention of this order, allowed the Orangemen to run up their returning from the funeral. An their way home while at Ottawa they behaved as Orangemen only can behave, sang insulting songs and behaved with all their usual vulgarity.

EXCURSION.—The Young Irishmen of Toronto, went on an excursion to Buffalo on Monday. A strong detachment of the police was stationed on the wharf to protect them.

AGENCY.—Henry Teneson has been appointed Inspector and special agent for the Wheeler and Wilson Sewing Machine Manufacturing Company. His office is at No. 1 and 3 Place d'Armes.

DIED.

CHILEY.—At Joliette, P. Q., on the 17th instant, Francis Joseph, age 10 years and 10 months, son of John Criley, of John Criley & Co, Paper Manufacturers, Montreal.

MOONEY.—Died at Elberton, on the 18th inst., Mary, daughter of Lawrence Mooney, aged 31 years, 1 month, and 18 days. May her soul rest in peace.

CORBETT.—The death of Alexander Corbett, in the parish of St. Raphael's, Gungarry, occurred on Saturday, the 14th inst. Although he had attained the advanced age of seventy-seven, he always enjoyed perfect health and was as vigorous as when a young man. He came to Canada in the beginning of this century from Gungarry, in the Highlands; that portion of Scotland which clung to the faith through weal and woe. The immense number which escorted his remains to the grave on Monday, testified to the esteem in which he was held. His funeral services was sung by his son, the Rev. George Corbett. Besides him were also present the Rev. John Masterson, Gauthier, O'Connor, and McDonald. May his soul rest in peace.
