CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY MORTGAGE BONDS ARE PAID.

The Canadian Pacific Railway paid off the $33,000,000 outstanding first mortgage 5 per cent. bonds which did not mature until July 1, 1915, and now the company's outstanding capitalization is made up of common and preferred stock and debenture bonds which do not carry foreclosure rights.

The Canadian Pacific Railway is now the only railroad of any importance that has no mortgage indebtedness. In the United States there is scarcely a road that has not added greatly to its fixed charges during the past decade, whereas the Canadian Pacific Railway has gradually wiped out its bonded debt by using the proceeds of its land sales.

IMPORTANT MORTGAGE COMPANY COMING.

A notable corporation, the British North-Western Mortgage Company, will be formed shortly. At a recent meeting of the provisional directors it was decided, in view of the prevailing financial conditions, not to go forward with the organization until about October 15. Should the present crop be harvested successfully, no doubt those interested, will then proceed actively.

Stephens, manufacturer; Arthur Wickson, capitalist; C. W. N. Kennedy, financial agent; D. E.
