118 King St. West

ART PHOTOGRAPHER.

Guarantees the finest and most artistic work
that can be produced, and allows a liberal discount to Professors and Students connected with Toronto University and other colleges."Mamma," said a little Chicago girl.
"Yes, dear." "Do you think I'll have the same papa all this yea?"Smythe, who is something of a con-noisseur in art, says his servant girl, who lit the fire with kerosene, was done up in oil.

"That ton of coal looks to me about 200 pounds short," said a family man, "and I'll have it weighed. The way some of these coal dealers cheat is wicked." After he had had it weighed he said to his wife, "It's all right; weighs about a hundred pounds over." "How much will you have to pay for the extra weight, John?" "Nothing. That's their mistake, not mine."

A Montana paper recently contained this remarkable notice: "Mr. Charles Johnson and Miss Fanny West were married by the Rev. S. Hills on Wednesday. So far no trouble has resulted, and those best informed as to the situation say there will be none." The next day the editor apologised, and explained that part of an item regarding an incipient strike had got into the wrong place.—Troy Times.

"We wish," says a Colorado editor, "to retract our statement made last week, that our esteemed fellow-citizen, the Hon. Mr. Plumley, never was known to keep his word. After reading the item in question, Mr. Plumley happened to remember that during the heat of the recent political contest he promised to kick us out to the fair grounds, and he immediately came up to the office and executed his promise. In fact, he has not only kicked us all the way out there, but kept it up most of the way back; and if he had not run out of breath, we think he would have been kicking us yet. Mr. Plumley is a gentleman of his word, cultured and polished, and can talk like an Asiatic Elephant."—Chicago Tribune.

THE BELLE OF THE "CONVERSAT."

The above subject was a very deep one last Friday eve. There were gentlemen present who wished to see, and thought the honor ought to be carried off by their special friends; but it seemed to be very generally admitted that a dark lady, with a handsome and striking figure, large, luminous dark eyes was the favourite. She was faultlessly attired and wore a handsome pair of diamond ear-rings with lace pin to match.

It was whispered around she bought the jewellery at Trowern's, 171 Yonge st., who always keeps a well regulated stock of the finest gold and silver jewellery. He already has a large patronage from the students and looks forward to a continuance and increase of the same, giving very liberal bargains to the "boys" of the "Varsity."
