

During the two preceding navigation periods, the workers of the Taimy Regional Division have been testing the new conditions of economic operations, implementing in their collective new progressive forms of labour organization and remuneration. Starting this year, the collective of river transportation workers north of the Polar Circle has made the transition to full self-financing and non-subsidized operation. And now the transportation centre of Dudinka works in a precise and coordinated manner.

Vodnyi Transport
17 September 1988
Page 2 (abridged)