

CHAPTER 5 — A SHORT COURSE IN U.S. FEDERAL PROCUREMENT

Legal and Regulatory Framework	5-1
The Acquisition Process	5-1
Major Events in the U.S. Federal Solicitation Process	5-2

CHAPTER 6 — FORECASTING CONTRACT OPPORTUNITIES

CHAPTER 7 — HOW TO GET STARTED

Getting on the Bidders' List	7-1
Marketing Canadian Construction Firms to U.S. Federal Customers	7-2
Bonds	7-8
How to Prepare a Winning Bid and Proposal	7-10
Considering Market Intelligence	7-10
Analysis of a Solicitation	7-12
Writing and Pricing Proposals	7-15
Using FOIA to Get Government Contract Information	7-17
Getting Assistance from the Canadian Commercial Corporation	7-20
Getting Assistance from the Canadian Trade Commissioner Service	7-20
Key Success Factors of Winning Contractors	7-23
Checklist for Getting Started	7-25

CHAPTER 8 - TEAMING WITH U.S. CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY PARTNERS

Cross-Border Teaming as a Marketing Strategy	8-1
Benefits and Risks of Teaming	8-1
Establishing a Teaming Relationship	8-3
How the U.S. Small-Business Programs Work	8-6
Set-Asides for Small Businesses and Small Disadvantaged Businesses	8-7
The 8(a) Program	8-9
The Status of Canadian Firms Facing Set-Asides	8-11
Tips for Contracting with the USACE	8-13