

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

THE STUDY ON

POWER GENERATION AND TRANSMISSION IN THAILAND

1. OBJECTIVE

This study aims to identify opportunities that exist or will exist for the Canadian Investors in the power generation and transmission in Thailand.

2. SCOPE OF STUDY

The study on Power Generation and Transmission in Thailand has been organized into 7 main sections:

1. Government Policy under the Sixth Five Year NESDP
  2. EGAT's Project to be under taken
  3. PEA's Project to be under taken
  4. MEA's Project to be under taken
  5. Competition in the power generation and transmission in Thailand
  6. Procurement
  7. Recommendation
- 7.1 Doing Bussiness in Thailand
  - 7.2 Forms of Business Structure
  - 7.3 Opportunities for Canadian Companies

3. METHODOLOGY

The primary data is obtained from structured interviews with the manufacturers, distributors and importers, including secondary data collection from a number of government and private agencies.