

Mr. Savary raised objection that the amendment of Mr. Macdonald was out of order.

The objection was overruled.

The division was then taken on Mr. Macdonald's (Glengarry) amendment, that flour and meal be added to the free list, and resulted in the loss of the motion by a majority of 8. Yeas, 73; Nays, 82.

Hon. Mr. Holton said that it was desirable to have a direct vote on the original motion of the Finance Minister. He therefore moved "the previous question".

Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald called on the friends of the Government to vote nay.

[Hon. Sir A. T. Galt—L'hon. sir A. T. Galt.]

M. Savary formule une objection disant que la motion de M. Macdonald est irrecevable.

L'objection est écartée.

L'honorable M. Holton dit qu'un suffrage direct est désirable sur la motion originale du ministre des Finances. Il pose donc «la question préalable».

L'honorable sir John A. Macdonald fait appel aux amis du Gouvernement pour qu'ils votent négativement.
