

CANADIAN EDITION OF Duties of the Church Member to the Church

BY REV. THOS. MURPHY, D.D.,

Author of "Pastoral Theology."

PRINTED AND STEREOTYPED BY JOHN IMRIE, 28 COLBORNE ST. TORONTO,
FOR THE REV. J. M. CAMERON.

The following testimonials have been received from those who, during the last few weeks, have ordered largely for congregational use:—

From Rev. Samuel Carruthers, Kirkwall.—"It is the best tract on the subject I have ever read. I shall have great pleasure in bringing it under the notice of others, and shall hope to hear of its being widely circulated.

Kirkwall, 29th July, 1884.

S. CARRUTHERS."

From Rev. W. D. Armstrong, M.A., Ottawa.—"There is far too much ignorance among the members of our churches as to the specific duties they owe to the cause of Christ, and as to the manner in which these duties should be discharged. Dr. Murphy's pamphlet is well calculated to remedy this defect. I am taking my Bible class over the subject.

Ottawa, 12th July, 1884.

W. D. ARMSTRONG, M. A."

From Rev. Robert Wallace, Moderator of the Presbytery of Toronto.—"This little work is admirably adapted to the purpose for which it is intended. It should be in the hands of every church member.

Toronto, 18th July, 1884.

ROBERT WALLACE."

From Rev. Joseph White, Rochester ville.—"I find the pamphlet fitted to be very useful, and the more so that some of my people, who have already read it, also approve of the points so pointedly put.

Rochester ville, 25th July, 1884.

JOSEPH WHITE, B. A."

From Rev. H. H. Macpherson, M.A., Halifax.—"My Dear Sir,—Dr. Murphy's tract I regard as admirable, and well worthy of distribution among our people. I received the 150 copies which you sent me, and our Session wishes 100 copies additional, so as to have one for each member.

Halifax, 30th July, 1884.

H. H. MACPHERSON."

From Rev. Walter Roger, London East.—"Dear Brother,—Dr. Murphy's tract is an admirable thing; the best I know for elders to read and distribute to every church member in their districts, calling attention to such points as are particularly appropriate to different cases.

London East, 7th October, 1884.

WALTER ROGER."

"We notice with pleasure a little tract of 16 pages by Dr. Thomas Murphy on the duties of the church member to the Church. The cover can have the impress of any church or pastor. We believe Rev. J. M. Cameron, of Toronto, will supply churches or pastors with any needed number. Its opening sentence indicates its design and presses home some pertinent enquiries. This little manual is intended to awaken attention and to serve as a guide to the chief duties which each of its members owes to the Church. Many persons become connected with the Church and are members of it for years without seeming to recognize the claims it has upon them. They do not reflect upon the obligations which this relation imposes, differently to be led to make even an effort for their performance. Words too true, hence in the successive chapters the duties are enforced, to pray for the Church, to attend, to support, to draw others thereto, to study the peace of the Church, to guard its good name, to stand by the pastor, to contribute to its benevolent objects, to adopt some branch of the church work, to help the Sabbath School."

PRICE.—Without cover, $3 per hundred. With cover, having the name of the minister and church, if desired, $3.50, free by mail.

J. M. CAMERON, 148 Queen Street East, Toronto.