

CHAPTER IV.

MINISTERIAL CRISIS.

	PAGE.
The New Canadian Cabinet—Sketches of its Members—Departmental Mismanagement—Financial Position and Prosperity of the Province—Purging the Departments—Policy of the Administration—An Unpopular Adjutant-General	52

CHAPTER V.

THE DEFENCE OF CANADA.

Rejection of the Militia Bill—Passing of a Modified Measure—Recall of Colonel Lysons, C.B.—Supineness among Volunteers—Strength of the Active Militia Force of Quebec—Canada a Spoilt Child—Spirit of the French-Canadian Press—Antipathy towards England—The New York Press Condoles with the Canadians—Annexation and a French Protectorate Denounced—Anglo-Federal Journals—Effective Volunteer Force of the Province.	83
---	----

CHAPTER VI.

THE UNIVERSITY OF LAVAL—THE GRAND AND LITTLE SEMINARIES.

Grant of a Royal Charter—Prince of Wales' Visit—Institution of a Prize—Outline of the Buildings, Cabinets, Museums, etc.—Pupils and Professors—Government of the Seminary—The Late Rector—The Grand Seminary for Theological Students—Financial Position of the University—Costume of the Scholars in the Little Seminary—Residence of the Priests—Monsieur De Laval—His Educational Labours—Chapel of the Seminary—Saintly Relics—A Combination of Mishaps.	101
--	-----

CHAPTER VII.

MORAL ASPECTS OF THE CAPITAL.

Separate School Systems—The First School in Canada—How Common Schools are Supported—Educational Statistics—The Old Jesuit College Metamorphosed into a Barrack—Preponderance and Description of Crime—Visit to the Gaol—What Constitutes "Hard Labour"—The "Room of Records"—A Maniac—Gaol Dietary—Condition of the Prison and the Prisoners—Absence of Classification	113
--	-----