

"Not quite nine years have passed since our organization, but many changes have occurred among us. Miss Flora Eaton, now Mrs. Boggs, is on her way to India for the second time. Some then present have entered into their rest. They can no more mingle with us nor aid by their contributions. They have ceased from their labors. Others have moved to other places and are doing some more, some less in the Lord's vineyard as they have opportunity. The old edifice in which we met has disappeared and changes of various discription might be noted. But our Society has lived on. Not in as thriving a condition as could be desired, it is true, but it has continued to assist the funds of the general board somewhat. The first remittance, $16.50 was sent to Dr. Tupper, then Secretary of Foreign Mission Board. Since then our remittances have been regular, though not always quarterly. Our membership has varied in numbers somewhat, at one time reaching as high a number as 53 and the membership has never been less than 38. The report for the year 1878 is of necessity very brief. The amount of $30 has been sent to the F. M. Board. It must be noted that there was no annual meeting held last year, an omission to be regretted, and if possible, overcome in the future. It is to be regretted too, that the monthly
