

ARTICLE VII.

RECORD OF INQUEST WITHOUT A JURY	Page 109
--	-------------

The Coroner should keep a record of every procedure in matters of an inquest without a jury.

(a) The record should mention the names and surnames of the persons who give the information, and, succinctly, the nature of this information (Formulae Nos. 1, 2 & 3).

(b) It should contain:—

1st. A description of the spot (Formulae 4 & 5).

2nd. A description of the corpse (Formulae 6 & 7).

3rd. The Coroner's attestation.

ARTICLE VIII.

REPORTS OF INQUESTS WITHOUT A JURY	116
--	-----

The records of the inquests without a jury are deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the district in which they are made.

A report to the Attorney-General is made by the Coroner.

This report should mention:—

1. The person who gave notice of the death,

2. The nature of the death, as given in the notice,

3. The conclusion to which the information has led.

ARTICLE IX.

EXPENSES AND ACCOUNTS	122
---------------------------------	-----

The Coroner has a right to fees for his inquests without a jury.

He also has a right to reimbursement of all necessary expenses and to 10c per mile which he has had to travel to make his investigations. To obtain this he should transmit a detailed account of each case, joining to it justifying vouchers and swearing that his account claims only fees due, expenses actually incurred, and that the means of conveyance were the least expensive under ordinary circumstances.
