Business Represents Large Overturn in Money—C.P.R. Lower

Canadian Press Despatch. NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Limited dealings in stocks on the floor of the exchange were renewed today after an enforced suspension of over four months, due to the European war. The course of the market, which was strong throughout, seemed to justify the action of the authorities in ordering a resumption at this time.

BUSINESS SMALL PRICES STEADY

London Expecting Early Opening of Exchange—C. P. R. Firm

LONDON, Dec. 12.—There was little business in securities in the street today, but prices were steadier. The attendance of brokers was small. Expectations for an early reopening of the London Stock Exchange were revived by statements that decorators effecting repairs to the interior of the house have been requested to complete their work forthwith.
