

Church of the Sacred Heart.

Our French Canadian co-religionists have good reason to feel proud of the success which has crowned their efforts of the past few years to establish a French parish in this city. A visit to the modest little French church on King street east, during the celebration of High Mass, any Sunday of the year, will convince one, that the parish of the Sacred Heart is not only firmly established in Toronto, but a credit to our Catholic community especially the French section of it which it comprises.

L'eglise du Sacre Coeur as it is familiarly known to the French people of this city, was founded about eight years ago; previous to this the French Catholics of Toronto assembled from time to time in the Cathedral or the old St. Vincent's chapel, where the late Very Reverend Father Laurent preached to them in their own native tongue, and by this means kept alive the project which they long had in view of building up a parish of their own.

This laudable design having met with the approval of His Grace the late Archbishop, a worthy French priest of the Montreal diocese, Rev. Philip Lamarche was called to this city and entrusted with this important work. It was a great undertaking—an arduous task, for the congregation was small and far from wealthy, but Pere Lamarche came, saw and conquered all difficulties, for within six months after his arrival the church of the Sacred Heart was dedicated, and so great was his zeal that a great part of the debt is already paid off and more land has been secured adjoining that on which the church stands where it is intended shortly to build a school house and presbytery.

Pere Lamarche is the typical French cure, possessed of a rich musical voice, and a genial smile always accompanying his greeting, he reminds one forcibly of the late Vicar General Laurent, whose worthy successor he is in the hearts of the French people of Toronto. Pere Lamarche is dearly loved by his congregation and the children to the number of a hundred or more, attending the school of the parish temporarily held in the basement of the church, lose no opportunity of showing affection for him, for this part of his flock receives his special attention and care. Last Sunday being Palm Sunday the usual service appropriate to the occasion was held, Gregorian music exclusively being rendered. It is a notable fact that this is the only church in the city where this truly religious chant is scrupulously adhered to during the Lenten season. The choir is a particularly strong and efficient one under the able direction of the organist, Mrs. McKinnon. The male portion especially is composed of an array of talent seldom met with. Messrs. F. N. Mercier, Rochereau de la Tabliere, Quenell Bissontotte and others well known in musical circles being enthusiastic members.

A visit to L'eglise du Sacre Coeur during any service never fails to impress one, especially if fortunate enough to understand the language of La Belle France, for Pere Lamarche is an eloquent preacher, his church is a model of cleanliness and order and the music rendered is always of a high standard and in keeping with the rubric.

St. Joseph's Church, Leasideville.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the parishioners took place recently in order to make arrangements for the annual concert which takes place on Easter Monday night in Dingman's Hall, Broadview avenue and Queen street East.

Mr. Thomas Finucan was unanimously chosen chairman, and the wisdom he has displayed in the selection of his committees augurs well for the success of the concert, as none but good workers have been chosen. Father McEatee is making strenuous efforts to reduce the debt on the church, which has been rather increased during the past two years by the many necessary improvements which have been made. Owing to a rather different way of working, the concerts of late years have not been a financial success, so, on the suggestion of members of the committees, it was decided to return to the old order of things, when standing room could hardly be secured at the entertainments. The ladies of the congregation are kindly giving their assistance, and those wishing for a night's recreation could not do better than patronize this concert, as first-class talent has been engaged, while nothing has been left undone which will in any way contribute towards make this the most successful entertainment yet held in connection with St. Joseph's Church.

She shook him once—she snook him twice
Yet he was not forsaken;
Third asking she accepted—'twas
"Well shaken before taken."

When we find ourselves in spiritual desolation, let us unite our suffering to that of the heart of Jesus in the Garden of Olives—St. Alphonsus Liguori.

GENEROUSLY GIVEN THE POOR.
San Elcario, Tex., June 12, 91. 4
Two years ago you were kind enough to send me some of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, which I gave to two poor girls who were suffering from falling sickness, and they got well after using your excellent remedy. My parish is poor to the utmost, but your charity will be of great benefit to your remedy so generously given to the poor, and so excellent, cannot but be an eternal reward.
