

LETTER X.

	PAGE
Indian Tribes of Nova Scotia and Cape Breton—Their Manners and Customs— —Conciliated by the French—Indian Wars—Attack upon Canceau— Garrison established there—Vessels seized by Indians—Outrages in Gut of Canceau—Atrocities committed by them in New England—Indian Village of Norridgewock destroyed by English Troops—The Jesuit Ralle killed . . . . .	154

LETTER XI.

Progress of Canada—Trade and Population of Nova Scotia—Forts erected in Cape Breton—French Trade with New England—Wreck of 'La Chameau' near Louisbourg—Ulloa's Account of Trade, Fisheries, &c., of Louisbourg —Influence of French Missionaries over the Indians—General Description of Louisbourg—Its Forts, Streets, Churches, &c. . . . .	168
--	-----

LETTER XII.

War between England and France—Canceau taken by the French—Alarm in New England—Feasibility of taking Louisbourg proposed—General Assembly of Massachusetts adopts the Proposal—Forces raised for the Purpose—Expedition under General Pepperrell sails for Louisbourg— Compelled to remain some time at Canceau by the Ice—Is joined by Commodore Warren with a Squadron from the West Indies—Fort at St. Peter's destroyed—Expedition arrives at Gabarus Bay . . . . .	186
--	-----

LETTER XIII.

Dismay at Louisbourg—State of the Garrison—English land at Flat Point Cove—Burn Warehouses at Head of Harbour—French abandon the Grand Batteries erected by the Besiegers—Enemy makes a Sortie—Particular Account of the Progress of the Siege—Battery erected at Lighthouse Point —'Vigilant' captured—Sickness in the English Camp—Scouting Expedi- tions—Failure of attack on the Island Battery—Great Loss of Men . . . .	205
--	-----

LETTER XIV.

English Squadron reinforced—Lighthouse Battery finished and armed— Enemy driven from their Guns at Island Battery—Preparations for a General Assault by Sea and Land—Governor of Louisbourg proposes a Suspension of Hostilities—Seeing no Prospect of Relief he capitulates— Remarks on Siege—English take Possession of Louisbourg—Great Re- joicing in England and the Colonies—Chief Occurrences at Louisbourg after the Siege—Don Antonio D'Ulloa's Account of the Siege, &c.—Gar- rison left in Louisbourg—Troops arrive from Gibraltar—Warren and Pepperrell sail for Boston—Commodore Knowles Acting Governor . . . .	225
---	-----