

SIR ADOLPHE CARON, C.C.M.G.

MINISTRE DE LA MILICE

— ET —

SES DETRACTEURS

— OU —

HUIT ANNÉES D'ADMINISTRATION MILITAIRE

Mr. Caron may be assured that his name will ways stand high in the recognition of the people
Canada, and in particularly among the people
Ontario.—(The Toronto Mail, June 13, 1885.)

It is Canada's good fortune to possess among its old French families numbers of gentlemen who, like Mr. Caron, inherit the military instincts of their chivalrous ancestors, who in the wilderness of America, founded la Nouvelle France, now the great Dominion of Canada. — Edward Palliser
(London Times, April, 1885.)

MONTREAL

COMPAGNIE D'IMPRIMERIE ET LITHOGRAPHIE GEBHARDT-BERTHIAUME

1888